142nd Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA
TUESDAY, MAY 4, 1926

The One Hundred and Forty-second Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled by appointment as above at 9.30 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. Thomas James Garland, D.D., LL.D., D.C.L., assisted by the Rt. Rev. Frank DuMoulin, D.D., the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, S.T.D., and the Rev. James F. Bullitt.

The Bishop read the names of those who have died during the past Convention Year, with a special claim on our prayers:

Of Bishops of the Church:

Frederick Burgess — Edward Melville Parker

Of Priests of this Diocese:

George Rogers — Henry Motier Galley Huff
John Grant Bawn — Michele Zara
Daniel Ingalls Odell

Of Delegates to the last Convention:

Abram Ernest Brecht — Clement Stocker Phillips
Louis Dalmas — Charles Stanley French
Charles Woehr, Jr. — Milton Edward Ulmer
Albert Lewis Edgerton Crouter — Frank John Pryor, Jr.

Of Delegates to former Conventions:

Rush Rowland — George Harrison Fisher
William Potter

Caroline Hamlin Sanford, Deaconess.

The Lord grant unto them that they may find mercy of the Lord in that day.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and may light perpetual shine upon them.

The offering was for Bishop Creighton's work in Mexico, amounting to $83.38.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 10.45 A. M. and, a quorum being present, proceeded to business.

The Order of the Day being the election of a Secretary, the Rev. L. N. Caley nominated

the Rev. Richard J. Morris

On motion, the nominations were closed and the President, having cast the ballot, declared Mr. Morris duly elected.

The Secretary appointed as Assistant Secretary

the Rev. Charles S. Lyons

The Convention confirmed the appointment.

The Rev. L. N. Caley presented the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

It is to be understood that the hours referred to in the program are those known as Daylight Saving Time.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title as far as possible. And all through the Convention Resolutions to discharge Committees from further consideration of the subject be omitted, it being understood that they are so discharged unless the Convention recommit the matter to their further consideration, or unless the work of the Committee is unfinished.

L. N. CALEY, C. L. HARPER,
G. H. TOOP, W. L. LANDRETH,
C. R. WOODRUFF

The Rev. T. L. Gossling presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS

together with the assignment of pews, which was adopted.

The Secretary reported as Unfinished Business from the Convention of 1925 the following:

Amendments: (1) Article IV, par. 2 & (2) par. 3 of the Constitution, in re Representation of Missions in Convention.

(3) Canon VI, Sec. I, in re Women Members of the Executive Council.

(4) Standing Resolution Convention 1895 in re interpretation "under sanction of Ecclesiastical Authority."

Reports: (5),Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions and the Executive Council in re Minimum Salaries.

(6) Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions and the Trustees of the Christmas Fund in re revision Canon VII, Sec. V.

(7) Commission on Music.

(8) Committee on Elections in re revision of Standing Order V.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Canon II, Section VII. Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of this Convention.

The Secretary announced that boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies would be found in the vestibule of the Church.

Bishop DuMoulin was invited to a seat in the Chancel.

The Secretary reported that the following Parishes have not sent in Certificates of Election of Lay Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies at this Convention:

Christ Church, Eddington; S. Luke's Church, Chadd's Ford; S. John's Church, Concord; Church of The Atonement, Morton; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge; Christ Church, Franklinville; S. Bartholomew's Church, Philadelphia; S. John the Evangelist, Philadelphia; S. Mary's Church, Philadelphia; Saint Sauveur.

The Secretary reported that the following Parishes have not sent in Parochial Reports for 1925:

S. Peter's Church, Great Valley; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge; Church of S. John the Divine, Philadelphia; S. Thomas' Church, Philadelphia; also S. John's Church, Northern Liberties, which sent in an imperfect Report, containing no record of services, nor other statistics, and therefore is not accepted.

and that the following Parishes have not paid the required Assessments for 1925:

S. Barnabas Church, Kensington; S. Bartholomew's Church, Philadelphia; Washington Memorial, Valley Forge.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and, that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

The President appointed the following Committees.

Claims of Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. Granville Taylor — The Rev. R. H. Gurley
The Rev. J. R. Logan, D.D.

Claims of Laity to Seats:

Mr. J. E. Harper. — Mr. L. M. Stiles.
Mr. George Hall

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS, as follows:

The Committee met on March 15th, 1926, and prepared the Preliminary Ballot, as required by the Standing Order, sending one copy to each of the Clergy entitled to vote at the Annual Convention and three copies to each Accounting Warden of the 140 Parishes in Union with the Convention for the use of the Lay Deputies, 669 in all. Of these they received back 48.

The Committee met on April 20th and prepared the Official Ballot and have caused copies to be mailed to all members of the Convention, in so far as names of Deputies have been sent in.

The Committee met on April 26th to "consider any necessary changes in the Standing Order to make the rules of procedure more clear" and offer the following Amendments:

(1). In Standing Order V, Sub-sec. 1, Paragraph 1, 1st sentence, change it to read: "Thirty days prior to the Convention, in each year, the Committee on Elections shall mail to each Clerical Deputy a Preliminary Ballot and to the Rector of each Parish in Union with the Convention (or, if there be no Rector, to the Accounting Warden) for the use of the Lay Deputies," etc.

(2) Change Sentence 4 of the above to read "The Deputies shall be asked."

(3) In Standing Order V, Sub-sec. 2, 1st sentence, line 2, insert "a ballot" in place of "ballots," and delete "(a separate ballot for each office)."

(4) Change Sentence 2 of the above by deleting "for each office to be filled by ballot."

(5) Omit sentence 3, viz: "Upon each box etc."

(6) In Standing Order V, Sub-sec. 3, change "1 P. M." to read "2 P. M.."

(7) In Standing Order VI (b) paragraph 1, line 2, and paragraph 2, line 1, change "Tellers" to "Judges."

For the Committee on Elections, GILBERT PEMBER, Chairman.

Each of the above Amendments were adopted.

The Secretary reported that the Committee on Elections had certified the following nominations; and, after opportunity was given for further nominations from the floor, on motion, the nominations were closed and the Secretary was instructed to cast the Ballot where only a sufficient number had been nominated; which being done, the President declared elected:

STANDING COMMITTEE: Rev. G. G. Bartlett, Rev. E. M. Jefferys, Rev. J. deW. Perry, Rev. F. M. Taitt, Rev. L. C. Washburn, Mr. E. H. Bonsall, Mr. A. J. County, Mr. W. W. Frazier, Jr., Mr. S. F. Houston, Mr. R. F. Wood.

DEPUTIES TO THE PROVINCIAL SYNOD: Rev. W. J. Cox, Rev. G. E. Pember, Rev. G. H. Toop, Rev. A. R. Van Meter, Mr. C. E. Beury, Mr. W. W. Frazier, Jr., Dr. W. L. Taylor, Mr. William White. (Rev. G. G. Bartlett withdrew his name.)

TRUSTEES OF THE DIOCESE: Rev. J. M. Collins, Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, Rev. G. W. Hodge, Mr. J. J. Collier, Mr. George Hall, Mr. J. S. Newbold, Mr. H. R. Robbins.

The Lay Deputies confirmed the election.

TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND: Mr. J. A. Harris, Jr., Mr. F. A. Lewis, Mr. C. S. W. Packard, Mr. Charlton Yarnall.

TRUSTEE OF THE CHRISTMAS FUND: Mr. J. S. Newbold.

ASSISTANT TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE: Mr. W. P. Barba.

BOARD OF TRIERS: Rev. W. N. Parker.

MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: (See pages 44, 45) Rev. J. M. Collins was nominated from the floor.

The Chair appointed the Tellers as follows:

Clerical Vote: The Revs. Richard Bright, Frank Goostray, E. G. Knight, J. M. Niblo, V. F. Pottle, William Roberts.

Parish Vote: Messrs. F. H. Longshore, A. K. Fenton, G. T. Jones, F. L. Brown, William Powell, H. W. Jones.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered a Resolution in re Printing Names of Funds in the JOURNAL which was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business (see page 60).

The Secretary offered a Substitute for the third of the Standing Resolutions in re Printing of Parochial Reports, 1893 (p. 90.)

The Rev. E. M. Jefferys offered the following Amendment, which was accepted by the Mover, and adopted:

Resolved: That in printing the Annual Reports of the Parishes and Missions the alphabetical order be observed, with the date of admission to the Convention or of organization.

THE COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF CLERGY TO SEATS reported that no claims had been submitted.

THE COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS reported that only one member was present and the Chair appointed the following to serve:

Messrs. Clarence Harper, L. J. Morris and Charles A. Gill.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved: That a Committee of five Clergymen and five Laymen be appointed by the Bishop, who shall be its Chairman, to examine the present constitution and operation of the Executive Council and the Executive Office and report its findings and recommendations to the next Annual Convention.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne for the COMMITTEE ON CANONS, presented for final adoption the Amendment to Article IV of the Constitution, paragraph 2, which was approved by the Annual Convention of 1925, as follows:

> Amend Article IV, paragraph 2, by adding the following: "A canonically established and organized Mission of this Diocese, having one hundred or more confirmed persons, of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, worshippers at the place of worship of said Mission, who for one year or more immediately preceding the Annual Meeting of this Convention shall have been registered and regular contributors to the support of said Mission, may send to the Convention one Lay Deputy, who shall have all the rights of Lay Deputies except the right to vote."

The Amendment was lost on a vote by Orders—Clergy, Ayes 66, Noes 64; Parishes, Ayes 39, Noes 39. The Parish vote was taken a second time—Ayes 40, Noes 42.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report and withdrew the Amendment to Article IV, paragraph 3, line 1, as becoming unnecessary by the previous action, viz.:

> Amend Article IV, of the Constitution, paragraph 3, line 1, by adding after the word "Church," the words, "or organized Mission."

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the amendment to the Constitution, Article VI, Paragraph 2, proposed by the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, as follows:

> Amend Article VI, Paragraph 2, of the Constitution, as follows: Between the words "Committees" and "Provided" in the eighth line of said paragraph, insert the following words: "and, except as to the election of the members of the Standing Committee, or where the Canons may provide differently, any Annual Convention, by the votes of a majority of those voting of the two Orders respectively, may adopt any other method of electing any officers or committees in that Convention."

respectfully report that they have considered the same and recommend its adoption.

By order of the Committee,
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the President bade the Convention to Noon-Day Prayers.

The Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats reported that no representative from any of the Parishes concerned had appeared to explain its failure to comply with the Canons.

The Report of the Committee on Canons being the business before the House, the proposed Amendment to Article VI, Paragraph 2, of the Constitution was approved, to lie over to the next Convention (see above).

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the amendment to Canon III, Section III, proposed by the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, as follows:

> Amend Canon III, Section III, by adding at the end, the words: "A vacancy in the office occurring during the recess of the Convention shall be filled by the Standing Committee."

respectfully report that they have examined the same, and recommend the following substitute:

> Amend Canon III, Section III, as follows: Make the first paragraph Sub-section 1, and repeal the words: "A vacancy in the office occurring during the recess of the Convention shall be filled by the Standing Committee."
> Make the second paragraph Sub-section 2.
> Add a new Sub-section 3, as follows: "3. A vacancy in the office of Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer occurring during the recess of the Convention shall be filled by the Executive Council."
>
> By order of the Committee,
> F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The Rev. A. E. Clattenburg offered the following Amendment, which was adopted:

Amend the proposed Amendment by substituting in Sub-section 3 the words "Standing Committee" for "Executive Council."

The Amendment as amended was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons beg leave to propose the following Amendment to Canon IV, Section I:

> Amend Canon IV, Section I, by adding a new Sub-section 4, as follows:
> "4. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Canons, any vacancy occurring during the recess of the Convention in any office or position to which the Convention elects, shall be filled by the Standing Committee."
>
> By order of the Committee,
> F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The Amendment was adopted.

The Rev. A. E. Clattenburg offered an Amendment to Article IV, Paragraph 2, of the Constitution (see page 56).

The Rev. G. H. Toop offered the following Amendment, which the Mover accepted:

After the word "Mission" add the words "or Chapel."

The proposed Amendment was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the amendment to Canon X, Section II, proposed by the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, as follows:

> Amend Canon X, Section II, Title to Real Estate, as follows: Repeal the words, "until such time as the Mission shall become duly incorporated as a Church and admitted into union with the Convention, at which time the title shall be transferred to the Church Corporation if it shall so elect," and substitute therefor the words: "until such time as the Mission shall become duly incorporated as a Parish, at which time the terms of the trust shall be so changed that the title shall be held by the said Trustees for the benefit of the Parish."

respectfully report that they have examined the same and recommend the adoption of the following substitute:

> Repeal the words, "until such time as the Mission shall become incorporated and admitted into union with the Convention, at which time the title shall be transferred to the Church Corporation if it shall so elect," and substitute therefor the words: "first, for such Mission, and secondly, for any corporation or parish association duly organized as provided in Canon XII to carry on the work of such Mission."
>
> By order of the Committee,
> F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The substitute was adopted, on division: Ayes 209, Noes 43.

The COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF LAITY TO SEATS offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Church of S. Barnabas, Kensington, be restored to representation in this Convention, the delegation, with the approval of the Dean of the Convocation and of the Treasurer of the Diocese, having given sufficient reasons for their failure to pay assessments.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the Report of the

and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese in a sum not exceeding $20,000 for the purpose of the Sustentation Fund for 1927.

Resolved, That the Commission be instructed to continue its study of the matter of recommending a minimum of $2,400 and Rectory for Clergymen who have been in Priest's Orders for ten years or more, and report at the next Convention.

Resolved, That the Convention earnestly commends to the Vestries of the Parishes of the Diocese that part of this report of the Commission bearing on increased salaries for the Clergy, and especially urges upon those Parishes paying less than $2,400 and Rectory a serious effort to bring the salary up to that minimum. And further, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be instructed to bring this resolution directly to the attention of the proper parochial authorities.

The Polls were declared open from 2.00 to 2.30 P. M.
The Convention took a Recess at 1.00 P. M. until 2.30 P. M.

RICHARD J. MORRIS, Secretary.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

TUESDAY, MAY 4, 1926, 2.30 P. M.

The Convention reassembled as above, the Bishop in the Chair.

The Secretary of the Convention presented the Report as follows:

During the past year he has endeavored to fulfil his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

A few more than the usual number of Parish Reports were returned by February 1st, the Canonical requirement; but the balance have been unusually slow in coming in, while many have been carelessly imperfect, even in the computation of figures. If the Reports could be typewritten, it will cost less to print the JOURNAL, because of the illegibility of many names therein.

With respect to the Deputation to the General Convention—the Rev. Dr. Foley was unable to attend because of illness and was replaced by the first Clerical Alternate, the Rev. L. N. Caley; Mr. Newbold declined the election and was replaced by the first Lay Alternate, Mr. J. W. Bayard; Mr. Houston was forbidden to go at the last minute by his physician, the second Lay Alternate could not arrange to attend, and Mr. R. D. Brown was chosen to serve by the remaining Deputies at New Orleans.

The Secretary has received from the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention a copy of three Amendments to the Constitution, together with Amendments to the Prayer Book, to be finally acted on by the General Convention of 1928, which he submits herewith (see Appendix P, page 342).

Concerning Diocesan Institutions only two out of the nineteen so registered have submitted the Annual Report required by Canon IX, Section V.

Mr. W. W. Frazier, Jr., read the

Mr. R. D. Brown, Executive Secretary, read the

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL
(See Appendix G, page 288)

Mr. C. R. Woodruff reported for the

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE AND INSTITUTIONS

The Rev. L. N. Caley presented by Title the REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

(See Appendix G, page 296)

REPORT OF THE CHRISTMAS FUND

(See Appendix I, page 326)

The Rev. Mr. Pember continued the Report and offered for adoption the Amendment to Canon VII, Section V.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the Amendment to Canon VII, Section V, proposed by the Rev. G. E. Pember and Mr. W. P. Barba, as follows:

Amend Canon VII, Section V, on the Christmas Fund, by repealing the whole of Section V, and substituting the following:

"1. The Christmas Fund shall consist of the avails of collections taken for that purpose in the Churches of the Diocese, and sums of money otherwise contributed to it.

2. At the Convention of 1916, and triennially thereafter, the Convention shall elect a Layman as Treasurer of this Fund, and four other Laymen, and these four men, with the Treasurer, shall, in May, 1926, and annually thereafter, add to their number two Clerical members of the Commission on Salaries and Pensions, and these seven men shall constitute the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, with the power and authority to receive and hold all moneys and other property contributed to the Fund, either by bequest or otherwise, and to appropriate the income from time to time in accordance with the provisions of this Canon; and any surplus of funds which may remain in their hands may be invested by them in safe and productive securities, which may be sold, when, in the judgment of the Trustees, such sale is necessary in order to provide funds to meet the appropriations made or to be made. Vacancies occurring in the Trustees shall be filled by the Standing Committee, for the unexpired terms.

3. The Trustees shall be authorized to make appropriations, at their discretion, and to the extent of the income at their disposal, to the following persons only; first, to Clergymen who have been entitled to seats and votes in the Diocesan Convention for at least two years next preceding, and who, through age, infirmity or other cause are totally or partially, permanently or temporarily disabled from performing the duties of their office; and, second, to the widows and orphans of Clergymen who, at the time of their deaths, were entitled to seats in the Convention."

respectfully report that they have examined the proposed Amendment, and find that it does not conflict with any of the provisions of the Constitution, or of other Canons of the Diocese.

By order of the Committee,

F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer offered the following Amendment, which was adopted:

Amend Section 2 of the proposed Amendment by striking out the words "and these four men" through "Salaries and Pensions," by changing "seven" to "five" and inserting after "men" the words "with the Bishop" so that Section 2 shall read "2. At the Convention of 1916, and triennially thereafter, the Convention shall elect a Layman as Treasurer of this Fund, and four other Laymen, and these five men with the Bishop shall constitute," etc.

Mr. L. J. Morris offered the following Amendment, which was adopted:

Amend Section 3 of the proposed Amendment by striking out the words "for at least two years next preceding" immediately following the words "Diocesan Convention," and "at the time of their deaths" near the end of the Section.

The Amendment to the Canon, as amended, was adopted.

The Rev. G. E. Pember presented the REPORT OF THE BUDGET COMMITTEE

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Executive Council be authorized to prepare the Budget for 1927 on the basis of the 1926 Budget, as to form, scope and amount, with such changes as are necessary to meet the conditions existing in the autumn.

The Committee on Dispatch of Business offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Report of the Quota Committee be postponed until after No. 3 on Wednesday morning.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne continued the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the amendment to Canon XXI, Section I, proposed by the Rev. Dr. L. M. Robinson, as follows:

Repeal the present Sub-section 3, and substitute the following:

"3. Should a vacancy occur among the Deputies, it shall be filled by an election at the succeeding Annual Convention; Provided, however, That if a vacancy shall occur after the Annual Meeting of the Convention, the remaining Clerical and Lay Deputies, by concurrent vote, may fill the vacancy until the next Annual Convention: Provided, further, That if, however, a Deputy shall be unable to serve at any time, the remaining Clerical and Lay Deputies may choose a duly qualified person in his stead."

respectfully report that they have examined the same, and propose the following Substitute:

Repeal Sub-section 3 of Section 1, Canon XXI, and substitute therefor the following:

"3. Should a vacancy occur among the Deputies certified as provided in Sub-section 2 of this Section, or should any such certified Deputy be unable to serve, the remaining Clerical and Lay Deputies may, by concurrent vote, choose a person to serve in his stead from among the Alternate Deputies as provided by Sub-section 2 of this Section, if any be available, but if not, then from among any other duly qualified persons; and shall deliver a certificate of such choice to the Secretary of the General Convention and to the Secretary of the Convention of this Diocese, whereupon the person so chosen shall have all the powers and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention of this Diocese.

Any other vacancy occurring among the Deputies or Alternate Deputies may be filled at any stated meeting of the Convention prior to or during which such vacancy shall occur."

By order of the Committee,
F. C. HARTSHORNE, Chairman.

The Amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the Report.

The Committee on Canons recommend that the following change be made in Canon XXI, Section I, Sub-section 5, as follows:

In Canon XXI, Section I, Sub-section 5, repeal the latter part, beginning with the words "and if a vacancy occurs."

The Amendment was adopted.

The Rev. L. M. Robinson, for THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS, offered the following Amendment to Canon XXI, Section II, Sub-section 2.

Amend Canon XXI, Section II, Sub-section 2, by adding at the end thereof the following:

"until the next Annual Convention; Provided further, That if, however a Deputy shall be unable to serve at any time, the remaining Clerical and Lay Deputies may likewise choose a duly qualified person to serve in his stead."

The Amendment was adopted.

The Convention took a Recess at 5.05 P. M. until 9.30 A. M. on Wednesday.

RICHARD J. MORRIS, Secretary.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY

WEDNESDAY, MAY 5, 1926, 9.30 A. M.

The Convention reassembled as above, the Bishop in the Chair.

The President opened the Session with prayer.

The Rough Minutes of the Sessions of Tuesday were read and approved.

The Committee on Dispatch of Business offered a revised Order of Business, which was adopted.

The motion to ballot at noon was reconsidered and the following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the next Ballot be taken at 11.30 A. M.

The Secretary reported that the Church of The Atonement, Morton, and S. John's Church, Concord, had sent in proper Certificates of Lay Deputies and therefore had Deputies at this Convention.

The Rev. W. C. Pugh presented the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

To the One Hundred and Forty-second Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Committee on Charters respectfully reports that it met on April 26, 1926, at the call of the Convener, the Rev. J. O. McIlhenny, and organized by electing the Rev. J. O. McIlhenny as Chairman and the Rev. W. C. Pugh as Secretary.

The Committee has considered the application for approval of Charter and admission into union with the Convention of the "Church of The Incarnation, Drexel Hill."

The Committee finds that this Church is a congregation having its place of worship on Garrett Road, Drexel Hill, Delaware County, and that it has been duly organized in conformity with the Canon of the Diocese regulating the organization of new Parishes.

That it has been incorporated by the Court.

That the Charter is in proper form, being substantially in that of the approved Form of Charter, and that it conforms to the requirements of the Canons and of Article IV, Section 2, of the Constitution of the Diocese.

That the Charter has been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters concurs therein and recommends that it be approved by the Convention and that the said Church be admitted a member of the Convention.

By order of the Committee,
WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

Mr. Pugh offered the following Resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the application of the "Church of The Incarnation, Drexel Hill" and its Charter of Incorporation be approved, and the said Church be admitted to the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

No Certificate of Lay Deputies having been presented, the Roll Call was omitted.

Mr. Pugh continued the Report:

The Committee further reports that it has considered the application of the "Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of All Saints Church, Norristown," for approval of an Amendment to their Charter changing the date of the annual election of vestrymen.

The proposed Amendment has been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee, and the Committee on Charters finds that the Charter conforms substantially to the Approved Form of Charter and offers the following resolution thereon:

Resolved, That the application of the "Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of All Saints Church, Norristown," changing the date of the annual election of Vestrymen, be approved by the Convention.

By order of the Committee,
WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. Pugh continued the Report:

The Committee further reports that it has considered the application of the "Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of All Hallows Church, Wyncote," for approval of an amendment to their Charter changing the number of Vestrymen from nine to twelve.

The Committee finds that the Charter as amended does not conform substantially to the Approved Form of Charter in the following particulars, viz.:

1. The name of the Corporation is not properly descriptive;
2. Vestrymen are not required to be "baptized and confirmed";
3. Electors of Vestrymen are not required to be "baptized";
4. The annual income is limited to $20,000, instead of $50,000, as is now provided.

And further that the proposed Amendment is not so worded as to accomplish its purpose.

The proposed Amendment has been approved by the Bishop. The Standing Committee has approved it with the following Proviso, That "the amendment of Article VI, Section 2, be so changed as to accomplish its purpose." And

"Resolved further that the Standing Committee suggests to the Parish of All Hallows, Wyncote, that while amending their Charter they make it conform to the suggested Form of Charter."

The Committee on Charters concurs therein and therefore presents this report subject to the foregoing Proviso, and offers the following Resolution thereon:

Resolved, That the application of the "Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of All Hallows Church, Wyncote," for approval of an amendment to their Charter changing the number of the Vestrymen from nine to twelve be approved by the Convention and permission be given to apply to the proper Court to grant the same, Provided, however, That the Standing Committee be first satisfied that the wording of the proposed Amendment is such as to accomplish its purpose; That the word "baptized" is added to the qualification of an elector; and That at least the word "baptized" is added to the qualification of a Vestryman.

By order of the Committee.
Respectfully submitted,
WALTER C. PUGH, Secretary.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Committee on Dispatch of Business offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons be the Order of the Day at 10.45 A. M.

Mr. E. B. McCarthy presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE DIOCESE
(See Appendix H, page 324)

Mr. W. J. Dickson offered the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the matter of the formation of the Corporation, to be known as The Church Foundation, be referred to the Standing Committee and the Chancellor of the Diocese, with power to act.

Mr. G. B. Hawkes offered the following Amendment:

Add at the end of the Resolution the words "Provided, That the Charter of the proposed Church Foundation shall provide for the election of the Directors or Trustees by the members of the Convention."

The Bishop called the Rev. J. F. Bullitt to the Chair and addressed the Convention.

The Bishop resumed the Chair.

The Amendment was lost.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Rev. G. E. Pember offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

WHEREAS, The Treasurer's report shows the gravity of the situation in respect of irregularity of remittances of Missionary and Business Fund moneys by the Parishes to the office of the Treasurer,

Resolved, That this Convention expressly recommends each Parish remits

(a) Its Convention Fund, Episcopal Fund and Sustentation Fund payments quarterly as required by Canon VII, Section 3; and

(b) That all Missionary moneys collected by the Parishes be remitted to the Treasurer's office for the month in which they are collected, at a date not later than the fourth of the succeeding month.

(c) That copies of this Resolution be sent to the Rectors and Accounting Wardens of the Parishes.

The Rev. P. R. Stockman presented the

REPORT OF THE QUOTA COMMITTEE

and submitted the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

(1) Resolved, That the Finance Department of the Executive Council be authorized to submit quotas to the parishes and missions in the fall of the year, and to request their reply in the form of "Expectation" figures which may be reported to the National Council and to the Diocese in relation to the Budget for 1927.

(2) Resolved, That the Convention call on every parish and mission to do its utmost to exceed the indicated Expectation for 1926.

The Rev. G. H. Dennison presented the REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON MUSIC

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Commission on Music be continued, with power to fill vacancies and, at its discretion, to add to its personnel.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne for the Committee on Canons presented the following Amendment to the Constitution (see page 41).

Amend Article IV, Paragraph 2, by adding the following: "A canonically established and organized Mission of this Diocese, having one hundred or more Confirmed persons, who, for six months or more immediately preceding the Annual meeting of the Convention, have been worshippers at the place of worship of said Mission and regular contributors to its support, may send to the Convention one Lay Representative, who shall have all the rights of a Lay Deputy."

The Rev. A. E. Clattenburg offered the following Amendment:

Amend the proposed Amendment by adding at the end the words "in a vote by Orders, when such Deputy shall have one-third of a vote."

The Convention went into Committee of the Whole to consider the proposed Amendment.

The Committee of the Whole rose and reported through its Chairman, the Rev. J. F. Bullitt, that it found no business which it could consider.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, for the Committee on Canons, offered the corrected form of the Amendment:

By adding after the word "Mission" the words "or Chapel."

The Convention went into Committee of the Whole.

The Committee of the Whole arose, reported Progress and asked leave to sit later on.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Polls were declared open from 11.30 to 11.50 A. M.

The Convention took a Recess at 11.30 A. M.

The Convention reassembled at 11.50 A. M., the Bishop in the Chair.

The REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND was presented by Title.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolutions:

1. WHEREAS, The Sunday School Lenten Offering for Missions was started by the Sunday School of S. John's, Cynwyd, in the Diocese of Pennsylvania in the year 1877, and that therefore next year we shall celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of that very important event; and

WHEREAS, The Annual Contribution from the Sunday Schools of the Church through the Lenten Offering has grown to be one of the largest sources of financial help to the Department of Missions of the National Council; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a Committee of three clergymen and two laymen be appointed by the Chairman of the Convention to co-operate with the Diocesan Department of Religious Education to make arrangements for a suitable commemoration in 1927 of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the starting of this most useful Fund, not only in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, but also throughout the whole of the Episcopal Church at home and abroad.

2. WHEREAS, The Service for the Presentation of the Lenten Offering for this year will be held next Sunday, and therefore there will be no time for this Committee to meet prior to that date; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Convention recommends to the Sunday Schools of the Diocese that they accept the sum of $100,000 as the goal of next year's offering to commemorate the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Starting of the Lenten Offering for Missions.

The Rev. A. E. Clattenburg offered the following Amendment, which was lost:

Add to Resolution 1 the following: "Resolved further, That this Diocese set apart one-tenth of the 1927 Lenten Offering of the Sunday Schools, to be held in trust by the Missionary authorities of our Church as a Memorial Fund in the name of John Marston, the Founder of this Offering."

Resolution 1 was adopted.

Resolution 2 was adopted.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the President bade the Convention to Noon-Day Prayers.

The Order of the Day having arrived, Dr. S. P. Ross addressed the Convention with reference to the Prison Welfare Association.

Mr. E. H. Bonsall offered the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the Convention approve the purpose set forth in the petition concerning the employment of Prisoners and the purchase of the products at a price not in excess of the prevailing market value of the same.

The Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge offered the following Substitute, which was accepted by the Mover and adopted:

Resolved, That having listened to the address of Dr. S. P. Ross on the subject of the Employment of Prisoners, the Convention recommends the subject to the sympathetic consideration of the Church people of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

The Committee on Elections presented the Report.

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania go on record against any effort to defeat the 18th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States."

The Chair appointed the following:

Examining Chaplains (to serve until 1929) and the Convention confirmed the nominations; Chancellor of the Diocese; Registrar of Diocese; Committee on Arrangements, Canons, Charters, Elections, Expenses. (for personnel see pp. 6, 3, 6, 7.)

The Rev. A. R. Van Meter presented the following Resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the portion of the Bishop's Address, entitled "Our Task," be printed for distribution, if the Bishop so approve.

The Rev. L. N. Caley offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

Resolved, That 650 copies of the JOURNAL be printed and distributed as usual.

Resolved, That the next Annual Convention be held on Tuesday, May 3, 1927, at such place and hour as the Bishop and Standing Committee may appoint.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the honorarium of one hundred dollars to the Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

Resolved, That the Bishop be authorized to appoint after the adjournment of the Convention the usual Committees and Commissions.

Resolved, That after the reading of the Rough Minutes and Prayers by the President, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The Rough Minutes were read and approved.

After prayer and benediction by the President the Convention adjourned sine die.

RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of the Convention.

CHARLES S. LYONS,
Assistant Secretary.

Registered Attendance: Clergy, 211; Laity, 250.

After the Convention adjourned the Bishop appointed the Committees and Commissions (for personnel see pp. 7, 8).

As I was consecrated in 1911 I have been a Bishop for fourteen and a half years. During the past year I have held 144 Confirmation Services, 68 other Services, presided at 95 meetings, and preached and made 220 addresses.

Considering that the General Convention met during the year this was a very full schedule. In the past fourteen and a half years there have been confirmed in the Diocese 47,581 persons, of whom I have confirmed over half, namely: 24,083. During this period I have received 500 Roman Catholics. In the past year there were 50 received in 28 different Parishes.

I think it is well to give you these statistics as if one of our members enters the Roman Communion it is heralded throughout the Country, but there seems to be an increasing number of Roman Catholics who find their home in our Church.

Making an allowance for transfers and deaths it is probable that I have had the privilege of confirming nearly one-third of the present active communicants of the Diocese.

It was a rare privilege during Lent to have with us the Rt. Rev. Arthur W. Moulton, D.D., Bishop of Utah, to assist in the Confirmations. It was his first visit to the Diocese of Pennsylvania and he was delighted with his reception in our Parishes and Missions.

Bishop Moulton's Visit

In addition to the Confirmations, Bishop Moulton gave addresses to many branches of the Woman's Auxiliary and other parochial organizations throughout the Diocese. His presence with us has increased our missionary spirit, and whenever he comes to Pennsylvania, he will receive a warm welcome.

At our last Convention action was taken looking toward the appointment of a Director of the Department of Religious Education. It gives me pleasure to announce that the Rev. Frederick E. Seymour, Rector of S. Philip's Church, has been appointed to this position and that he will begin his duties October first.

Religious Education

I am sure that all our people will be glad to have one of our own Clergy in this position and that they will co-operate heartily with him in the work of his Department.

The establishment of schools for Week Day Religious Education, which has been so successful in other places, has made little headway in this Diocese. At the present time we have only two centers for Week Day Religious Instruction—in Lansdowne and in Jenkintown.

A pamphlet has been issued by the National Board of Religious Education containing much information on this subject; I will be glad if the Clergy will carefully read the information contained in it and tell their people about this new experiment, which has been found so helpful in many parts of our Country. There are many benefits to be derived from a course of Week Day Religious Education, and if the Clergy and people of our Church are interested in it there is no doubt that many of our Public School Boards would co-operate with them in establishing such Schools.

Mrs. John Edwin Hill was appointed by the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese as Educational Secretary to succeed the late Mrs. Pilsbry. She has taken up her duties with great earnestness and the record for the year's work shows that about 100 Mission Study classes were held, attended by nearly 2000 members, with an offering of $1,500 for building a Church in Haiti.

Young People's Fellowship

The Young People's Fellowship in our Diocese is steadily growing in numbers. A few weeks ago a Provincial Meeting was held in this City attended by about 500, one-half of whom were from other Dioceses, in the Province of Washington.

We were all much impressed with the earnestness and enthusiasm of the members.

It is the fashion in some quarters today to speak unkindly or in denunciation of youth. We should take into consideration the great change in our living conditions today, the lessening of home ties and home influence, and how much the young people are thrown on their own resources. Then in fairness we must realize that the older generation has done much less for youth than it might have done, and it is too late to blame the young people because they have undertaken to find out what they can do for themselves—rather we should encourage them in the effort.

There is no doubt that young people have greater temptations than the older generation had—there are many to encourage them in the ways of evil; let us aid them in cultivating a fellowship in the Church that will have an influence for good.

I think we can all agree that young people must have opportunities for recreation, good sports, amusements and everything that will act as a counter-attraction to evil influence. At the same time we must not forget that youth is also naturally religious. Young people have great capacity for the love of good, they do not care for cant or hypocrisy or insincerity, they are filled with enthusiasm and ready to respond to a call to do difficult things, if they are worth while. Let us enter into their spirit of adventure and co-operate with them and help them to cultivate a love for the highest ideals and give to them full opportunity to put their great talents at the Master's service so that the enthusiasm and idealism of youth may be preserved, and they will become a great power for good in the Church.

May I again impress upon you that our Churches can make a great contribution to the community through the influence of our Christian homes? The example of Christian parents, and the environment of a Christian home will save many young people from the doubtful and dangerous influences of our modern life. A great responsibility rests upon the parents, which we hope they will fully realize, and also remember that the greatest blessing they can give to their children is to bring them up in "the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

Respect for Those in Authority

Every thoughtful man must be deeply concerned over the disrespect for law and the lack of respect for those in civil authority. We all recall the statement of Henry Clay as to his confidence in the future of our Nation, one chief reason being this beloved Church of ours—because its members were brought up to respect those in authority.

We should carry out the spirit of our prayers into the practice of life. The Church has a great responsibility to the community; as a Church we cannot enter into political discussions or differences, but we do not give enough encouragement or support to civic administrators and legislators; we hold aloof from them. We could do a great deal more to aid them to realize and listen to the voice of a Christian civic consciousness, and I know from experience that they generally welcome our suggestions and are ready and willing to co-operate as far as possible in doing what is right if we convince them that it is right.

There are many to encourage those in authority to do wrong, but the voice and the support and the influence of Christian men is often unexpressed.

Resolutions as a rule do not count for much, but a desire to help and to co-operate as individuals in every good measure is a potent influence in civic life.

The Sesqui-Centennial

A Committee has been appointed to represent our Church in making our own plans in connection with the Sesqui-Centennial. A great many visitors come to our City and we are arranging to have an exhibit.

The Committee is also arranging for special services during the Summer in the City Churches and especially in the old historic Churches that were so actively concerned with the making of our Nation in the stirring days of the Revolution.

Further announcement of our plans will be made by the Committee at an early date.

New Buildings

The erection of new buildings for the Missions of the Diocese has been practically at a standstill for years largely due to the many demands made on the Diocese for special funds for general missionary work. There have been, however, some notable buildings erected in the past year by Parishes—among them the fire-proof Parish House at S. Stephen's Church erected at a cost of $100,000; the Parish House for the House of Prayer, Branchtown; and the Parish House for S. David's, Radnor, erected by her children in memory of Ellen Waln Harrison.

The Chapel of the Nativity of S. Luke's Parish, Germantown, has also been finished and dedicated; and the temporary Chapel for the Episcopal Academy, the gift of a generous donor.

Since the last Convention, the corner-stone of the Chapel of the Divinity School has also been laid and the Chapel will be ready for consecration in the Autumn.

As we have always been interested in the Seamen's Church Institute, although it is an interdenominational work, I should mention the completion of the new building and the dedication of the Chapel in memory of the late William West Frazier.

Many other improvements have been made in the Diocese. As is customary, I will append a list so that it may be printed in the Journal.

Church Extension Fund

The Church Extension Fund for 1925 reports the largest income for any year in its history—a total of $12,000, being an increase of about $2,000 over the previous year.

We have about 69,000 Communicants in the Diocese and but 800 pledges, including a few from parish organizations.

Nearly all the Forward Work done in the Diocese in more than ten years has been through the instrumentality of this Fund.

May we not speak for the inauguration of a strong co-operative effort in all our parishes to increase the Church Extension Fund's opportunities for helpfulness in our Diocese?

Many appeals have been made for such aid. If it were possible to give the assistance requested, it would mean much for the strengthening, development and expansion of the Church.

The Fund was started in 1915 to aid in the purchase of sites, assist in the building of missions, churches, rectories, parish houses, etc. The number of subscribers has increased over 300 per cent and the receipts doubled since the Fund was established.

The "Calls" are limited to three each year, and the individual pledges range from 50 cents a "Call" upwards. Many of the pledges are for $1, $2 or $5 a "Call."

It may be interesting to note that the first effort at extension work by the Fund in 1915 was toward the purchase of a lot for the Mission of the Incarnation at Drexel Hill. A few years later the Fund was used to help in the building of a Parish House for this Mission. At this Convention the Mission is making application for admission into Union with the Convention as a self-supporting Parish.

Material Aid Given

There is scarcely a part of the Diocese where the Fund has not rendered material assistance to Missions and Parishes. Among them we may mention S. Gabriel's on the Roosevelt Boulevard; All Saints, Darby; Trinity, Gulph Mills; S. Giles, Stonehurst; Trinity, Collingdale; Holy Sacrament, Highland Park; Hebrew Christian Synagogue; S. Cyril's, Coatesville; All Souls for the Deaf; Emmanuel, Kensington; Bucks County Missions; our Mission at Glenside; Church Community House, Morrisville; Ascension Mission, West Chester; House of Prayer, Branchtown; Advent, Kennett Square; Mission of the Redeemer, Springfield; Mission of the Transfiguration, South Philadelphia; S. George's, Richmond; Holy Innocents, Tacony.

In all our Convocations, except that of West Philadelphia, we have an active Woman's Aid or Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation. These render valuable assistance in our missionary work, and with generous offerings materially assist in the purchase of sites and erection of buildings. Besides these two sources we have the annual offering of the Bishop's Brick Fund which is now under the Church Service League. This Fund is also given to assist in erecting new buildings.

I desire to call the attention of the Clergy to the changes that were finally enacted in the Prayer Book at the meeting of the General Convention last October and which became effective January first of this year. A number of rubrics were altered permitting a shortening of services, but I call particular attention to the changes made in the administration of the Holy Communion.

The General Convention

In a number of places in the Diocese the service as printed in the Prayer Book is still being used, whereas by action of the General Convention the Lord's Prayer has been inserted immediately after the Consecration, and the Prayer of Humble Access transferred from its place in the printed Prayer Book, to follow the Lord's Prayer, and therefore immediately before the administration of the elements; in the Gloria in Excelsis there is also omitted the repetition of the words "Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us."

For the sake of uniformity and in keeping with the present law of the Church I hope that every Clergyman in the Diocese will observe these changes.

In the Confirmation Office the alterations are the removal of the preface, which was seldom used in this Diocese as it was of a permissive character, but now it is no longer a part of the service. The concluding sentences of the Lord's Prayer have also been added.

In speaking of the Order of Confirmation, I would again call attention to the rubric which states that the Bishop shall "lay his hands upon the head of everyone severally." In some Churches of our Diocese (probably twenty or twenty-five) it is customary for the female candidates to wear veils. I have before requested and must insist that when this is the custom the veil shall be so placed that the Bishop can lay his hands upon the head of the candidate. I do not consider it sufficient merely to lay hands upon a veil any more than it would be to baptize an infant by pouring water on a cap, or in administering the Holy Communion to deliver the sacred elements into the hands of a person wearing gloves.

If veils are desired, they should be so arranged that the Bishop can "lay his hands upon the head" of the person presented for Confirmation.

The Church Foundation

For some time I have been considering the need of a Foundation in the Diocese to which money could be given or bequeathed. After submitting the matter to legal advisors, including the Chancellor of the Diocese, I announce to the Convention our desire to have chartered a corporation to be known as The Church Foundation.

This will meet a need in the Diocese that is not met by the Trustees, or by the Cathedral Foundation, or any other holding Corporation. It will be much broader in its scope than the Trustees of the Diocese.

The object of The Church Foundation is to make it possible for anyone in the Diocese to leave money by Will to the corporation for the general work of the Church in the Diocese, or they can specify for Missionary work, Educational work, community work, etc.

In addition to the general provisions, which we will publish in a booklet giving information about the Foundation, we will include the corporate title of all the Institutions of the Diocese so that money can be left direct to them if desired.

The Charter is naturally very simple in its form, giving merely the name of the corporation, place of business, number of Directors, and stating the purpose as follows:

"The purpose for which it is formed is the support of any benevolent, charitable, educational or missionary undertaking of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and, in furtherance thereof, receiving and holding property real and personal of and for unincorporated religious, beneficial, charitable, educational and missionary societies and associations of said Church and executing trusts therefore."

Provision has been made that the Directors shall be elected by the Convention and also that any amendments to the by-laws must be approved by the Convention.

It is our belief that such a holding corporation will give a simple method of leaving money to the Church to be used for our general work as may be most necessary and will be welcomed by many of our people. On the other hand it will not prevent those who wish to designate their bequests for any particular Institution.

May I suggest that the Convention approve the general purpose of such a charter and refer it to the Standing Committee and the Chancellor with power to act?

I ask the attention of the Lay Delegates to the Annual Report of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and cordially endorse the resolution attached to the Report requesting all Parishes to make an earnest endeavor to increase the salary of all Rectors who are not receiving it, to at least a minimum of $2,400 and Rectory.

Increase of Clerical Salaries

We are very grateful to the Vestries for their cordial co-operation in making possible the increase that was formerly suggested.

Two years ago I announced that a Survey of the Diocese would be made. Many of our Institutions and Missions needed funds, but as we had already promised to make the long-delayed appeal for the Divinity School, also for the Japanese Reconstruction Fund, and for our share in the work of the Christian Association at the University of Pennsylvania, my judgment was unanimously endorsed by the Executive Council that no general appeal for Diocesan work should be made until a Survey was completed.

The Survey

It was manifest that frequent appeals were inadvisable and that it was impossible to do justice by taking up these Institutions and Missions one by one.

The Survey shows that a number of the older Institutions in our Diocese are very poorly equipped and that the new Institutions are naturally more up-to-date. Many of our Missions—in fact nearly all of them—are undeveloped and without the proper equipment for their work. I know that I truly interpret the mind of our Diocese when I say it is our desire that all our Institutions and Missions shall be put in first-class condition. We have not been called upon for large contributions for Diocesan Missions for a long time. Our appeals for many years have been limited to the General Missionary work of the Church. Very little constructive Institutional work has been done in the Diocese in our generation excepting the Church Farm School. On the other hand, we often hear the opinion expressed that it is high time that these Institutions our fathers built and helped to endow should be brought up to the highest standard of efficiency and that the Missions we have started should be properly equipped so that they will have an opportunity to develop into self-supporting Parishes. All this work will be of a permanent character. For such a purpose we feel sure that many of our people will be willing to give generously even if they give from principal and not from income.

We have decided that the pledges will cover a period of five years and ample provision will be made for memorials for those who desire to erect them. Such an appeal covering all our Institutions and Missions that are in need must interest every communicant in the Diocese.

Pledges to Cover Five Years

In the past, many limited their gifts to a single Institution or Mission, and that had a tendency to make us think of our work in a limited way instead of considering the wonderfully diversified work of the Diocese as a whole, in all of which we have a part.

When the fund is raised all items on the Survey will be taken up; the most imperative will be the first undertaken. In the allocation of the order of our Missionary projects I will act with the advice and counsel of our Missionary Council and of the Department of Missions. The money appropriated to the Mission will, as is customary, be disbursed under the direction of the Executive Council.

During the next five years there will not be any further appeal for Diocesan buildings except for some great emergency, and perhaps for starting our Cathedral work, if the need should become apparent and the time propitious. I expect to make an official announcement about our Cathedral plans a little later in the year. The Cathedral League has been re-organized and we have a splendid body of efficient workers ready to aid us when definite plans are assured.

Changed Conditions in City

In large sections of our great City, where a few generations ago we had flourishing Churches with crowded congregations and large Sunday Schools, we have now diminishing congregations. Forty years ago, the downtown Churches of all communions, in old Philadelphia and the adjoining sections of West and North Philadelphia, reached every person within their borders, and all their congregations lived in the neighborhood, but today the congregations of these Churches are largely made up of those who come from a distance. In many of these districts we are doing our work in the same way and using the same methods as a generation ago.

We are aware that there have been great changes in the character of the population of our City during the past few generations, but not many realize that the foreign born and their children outnumber the native born in this City. Considering these great changes, and especially in the last decade, it is apparent that we spend a disproportionate amount upon the support of our own Churches compared with what we spend to preach the gospel to and share our privileges with the strangers within our gates.

Our population in the City of Philadelphia is increasing at the rate of 40,000 a year, and there is a corresponding growth in the Diocese at large. New manufacturing plants are yearly being erected, apartment houses, business buildings, etc. Real estate experts tell me that about 35 new Churches are built in Philadelphia every year. What are we doing? In comparison with others our Church Extension has been practically at a standstill for a generation.

When we look back in the history of the Church we know that there was a time when the Church felt no obligation to the heathen. Then there came the great missionary awakening. The time has come when there should be a missionary awakening within our own borders. We cannot doubt that the Holy Spirit is always ready to guide and lead us if we really set ourselves to the challenging task. We need a new awakening of the corporate power of the Church lest we waste our forces and perish for lack of vision.

Our Task

In a Diocese which includes a large City like Philadelphia, our people must naturally give much of their time, their talents, and their money to material things. We are also interested in every movement for the good of our City and neighborhood; we believe in economic readjustment and in good government, but these will not change life and character. Religion is more than ethics, and as Christians we believe in the transforming influence and power of the living Christ in human life.

When the Master looks out and sees sheep scattered without a shepherd He wants His disciples to minister to their needs.

I suppose you are all fairly well satisfied with the work done in your Parishes and Missions and I would not, to the slightest degree, minimize it—a devoted Priest and Pastor can do a great work for God in any community, and especially if he has the hearty and prayerful co-operation of his people. But in addition to the work that you are doing in your Parishes

I want to direct your attention, this morning, to what you are doing in the Diocese, for every communicant in the Diocese has a share in our Diocesan work.

We have, in this Diocese, many great institutions: the ground and buildings and endowments might be estimated at over $13,000,000. Many of these were built years ago by the munificent gifts of individuals, but in practically all of them these were aided by the generous gifts of the Diocese at large. All of them have been largely supported by voluntary offerings, though, with the increase of bequests, some few of them are almost self-supporting, but as they stand today they represent the Diocese—therefore they represent you and the work that you are doing.

In these Institutions there is a varied character of work carried on. There are engaged in them about 64 teachers, 27 resident and 78 visiting doctors, a total of 105 doctors, 156 nurses, and 148 other workers, a total of 304 workers.

Then there are about 45 Missions in the Diocese; the grounds and buildings of these Missions are valued at over $1,600,000. All of these have been built by you. In them there are 37 missionaries at work among their people—on the whole a body of consecrated men giving their lives to the missionary work of the Church here at home. These Missions are all largely supported by your offerings. They minister to all sorts and conditions of people, rich and poor, white and colored, native and foreign, English-speaking, Italians, Poles, Rumanians.

Of the Institutions there are about ten and of the Missions there are about forty that need special assistance at the present time, and as they belong to you, you must help to develop them; put them in first-class condition; and equip them to do their work.

What an appeal this work of ours should make to us! Let me enumerate some of the different kinds of work which you are doing as a Diocese in addition to all that you are doing in your own Parishes. In our Diocesan Missions and Institutions you are sending messengers to preach the gospel to the poor, and to the strangers within our gates; ministering to the sick and suffering; taking care of the widows and educating the orphans; seeking and caring for the destitute, the forsaken, and the homeless; visiting the prisoners; ministering to the blind, the deaf, and the crippled.

Work That Should Appeal

Does not this work which you are doing in the Diocese of Pennsylvania strikingly remind you of the words of the great Master of life when He said, "The spirit of the Lord is upon me because He hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor, He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord"? Then He added, "This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears." So it is being fulfilled in our Diocese today, but not in so great a measure as any of you desire.

The object of our Survey has been to ascertain what Institutions need our united assistance so that they may be properly and fully equipped for the work they are endeavoring to do, and to develop and extend our missionary work in a similar way. The time has arrived when the Diocese must move as a unit—Clergy and people shoulder to shoulder—and make a greater impress upon the spiritual life of our community.

As usual the triennial Thank Offering of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was the largest presented at New Orleans, amounting to $86,031.67, and the General Missionary Items

Spring Offering of this year was the largest in our history, over $13,000. There is every reason to hope that the Lenten Offering from the children of the Church, to be presented next Sunday, will exceed all previous records. The amount given last year was $69,039.46. We are all proud of these records of generous gifts to the Mission of the Church. Next Spring we will observe the fiftieth anniversary of the Lenten Offering and we suggest that there should be a fitting celebration of it in this Diocese where it originated.

As a Diocese we have never raised more than 60% of the quota assigned to us by the National Council; the amount asked for this year is $316,800. In January, when we had to report to the National Council, the pledges of the Parishes and Missions for this purpose were about $185,000, but the Executive Council agreed to pledge $200,000 and also to make an effort to raise an additional $50,000. On request this amount was also accepted as a pledge so that the Diocese is now pledged to raise the sum of $250,000 for the work of the National Council. In addition to this we pledged in New Orleans to raise our share of the deficit of the National Council, and we have been informed that this is $160,000. Up to this date we have received in cash and pledges $141,000, leaving a balance of $19,000 to be raised.

I sincerely hope that all members of the Church who have not yet contributed to this purpose will send their contributions to Mr. Joseph Wayne, Jr., the Chairman of the Committee, or to me, so that the amount will be paid in full at an early date. Speaking for the Diocese I heartily thank Mr. Wayne and the members of his Committee who have worked so hard to raise this fund.

Payments to National Council

Though we are only credited on the quota by the National Council last year for the sum given toward the apportionment amounting to $185,-060.57, yet it is interesting to note that not including the United Thank Offering of $86,031.67 we actually sent to the National Council last year in cash the sum of $398,-306.94 as follows:

Quota and specials	$198,306.94
For Japanese Reconstruction	150,000.00
Toward the Deficit	50,000.00
Total	$398,306.94

For the year 1926 we are pledged as follows:

Towards the apportionment	$250,000.00
Balance of pledges to be paid this year for the Japanese Reconstruction Fund	80,000.00
Balance of pledges to be paid this year for the Deficit	91,000.00
Additional amount yet to be raised for the Deficit	19,000.00
Total	$440,000.00

This means that we have to raise in Pennsylvania this year a larger amount than any other Diocese in the Country, with the possible exception of New York, to redeem our pledges. It is manifest that it will not be possible to raise it without generous gifts. It is also manifest that if we had not to raise these special pledges we could pay our apportionment in full. A Committee has been appointed to raise the $50,000 additional pledged to the National Council. May I suggest that our first duty is to raise the $19,000 needed for the Deficit and then the $50,000 to apply on the apportionment in addition to our Parish Offerings? Both of these amounts should be completed at as early a date as possible.

We rejoiced when the National Council announced that the promises by the Dioceses for the present year were $575,000 larger than the total given last year, but I must confess that we were much disappointed when in spite of this large increase of pledges the National Council also announced a cut in the Missionary appropriations, both in the Foreign and Domestic field.

It is sometimes difficult to understand the financial reports issued by an Organization. It would be helpful to the whole Church if the National Council would publish its exact payments of last year and appropriations for the present year with a statement of the income earned last year on the Trust Funds. I believe it would also be helpful to the Church at large if we could have the appropriations so classified that we could tell exactly how much is spent for salaries in all Departments of the National Council for travelling, how much for Evangelistic work in the preaching of the gospel, how much for Schools, for Hospitals, etc.

A Revised Missionary Policy

I think the time has come when we should reconsider our whole Missionary program and raise the question whether we have not departed too far from our former system. Under the old Board of Missions nearly all our offerings were spent on Evangelistic work, Schools and Hospitals. With the creation of the National Council it was necessary to spend large sums of money in the inauguration of a new policy, but it is a serious questions whether such expenditures should become a permanent annual necessity.

For instance, in the Department of Publicity there was a great deal that had to be done at first and a certain work has been accomplished. However, there have been large reductions in this particular Department and it is a serious question whether it should not be further curtailed and the money devoted to Evangelistic work.

In our Missionary work in other lands there are also serious questions confronting us. We have spent a great deal of money in various countries in education. In Turkey today we all understand that the Christian Religion cannot be taught in any of the Missionary Schools or Colleges supported by the Christian Churches. Of course, we may say that as a Church we have no interest in the Schools of Turkey, but a similar condition is confronting us in Mexico, and unless my judgment is mistaken the problem is becoming acute in China and will inevitably come to the front in Japan and other countries.

I think it is high time for us to recall that though Schools are important, the chief duty of the Christian Missionary is to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, and that perhaps we have gone far enough in the policy of giving secular education.

The Church might make more real progress by confining its work to Religious Education. We know from the experience in our own Country that Religious Education can be given in connection with the Churches and Sunday Schools and in the homes of Christian people.

If we could spend more of the millions annually given by our Churches for the spread of the gospel of Jesus Christ in sending Missionaries to preach that gospel—then if we had more faith in the guidance of the Holy Spirit and would allow Christian converts in other lands to develop their own native Churches instead of holding them too long under our authority, there might be a different story of Missionary progress.

I trust that the statement of the large amounts that must be given for the General Missionary work of the Church will not interfere with the large gifts that are necessary for our work at home. We have always said that those who do the most for the General Missionary work of the Church are ready to do the most at home—now we must prove it. We simply cannot go on marking time without any real progress in Church Extension in our own Diocese.

For your encouragement may I call your attention to the fact that in addition to what we have sent to the National Council for quotas and deficit in the past two years, we have also raised in the Diocese for three special purposes about one million and a half for the Divinity School, the Japanese Reconstruction Fund, and the offering of our Church towards the Christian Association of the University of Pennsylvania? The fact that we have given this amount for improvements of a permanent character for three projects should indicate that we are perfectly able to give double that amount covering a period of five years for the needs of forty Missions and ten of our Institutions.

Our Appeal

I do not desire to close this appeal on a money basis, and I have purposely refrained from mentioning the sum required. Let us forget what it will cost and think of the needs. The 10 Institutions for which we appeal cover practically every phase of humanitarian, charitable and educational interest in our Diocese.

Of the Missions needing assistance there are four for which we have purchased sites, but they have no buildings. One of them is worshipping in a hall and another in a house, four have temporary frame buildings that must be torn down, one is worshipping in a basement, and three others are carrying on their Parish activities in a basement. For others we have not even purchased a site.

We do not contemplate building Churches for these Missions—merely properly equipping their Parish Houses so they will have a separate room for a Chapel in which to worship, and be properly equipped to do their work so that they may grow in numbers and in influence. Heretofore we have been expecting our missionaries to perform the impossible task by making bricks without straw.

Though we pride ourselves on the splendid band of Missionaries laboring among our colored brethren, just think how meager our work is when we know that there are 270,000 colored people in the metropolitan area of Philadelphia! Then as we think soberly of the hundreds of thousands of foreigners in our Diocese and how little we are doing for them, the task of the Christian people of this City seems stupendous. Let it be to us as a challenging call to faith.

We hear much about the lowering of moral standards, the decline of moral health, the prevalence of worldly ideas, but we must all bear a share of the responsibility. Let us look upon it as an opportunity for service. The restricted immigration today gives us a wonderful chance for assimilation of the strangers within our gates. Through our negligence we have a share in the sins of those to whom we have not ministered; let us also have a share in their redemption. We have been too self-centered; we have been too much conformed to the world; we have fitted ourselves to our material environment and we need a transformation that will lead us in the spirit of the Christ to bear our witness to Him in lives of service.

The program outlined in our Survey is a comprehensive one; it means the abandonment of our isolation as individuals and as Parishes and to set ourselves to the fulfilment of that other task which we share in common, and thus carry out a great concerted purpose for the spiritual community of brethren.

We do not believe that our Church alone can humanize or spiritualize the work of this great City or of this great Diocese—the task is too great for us, but we can make a greater contribution to it; we can help to make a new and better Philadelphia; we can help to make a new and better Diocese. I call upon you my brethren, in confidence that together—like a mighty army the Church of God will move forward, and through faith in Jesus Christ, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, do a greater work for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God.

Now to Him who is able to keep you from slipping and to make you stand unblemished and exultant before His glory—to the only God, our Saviour through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion and authority, before all time and now and for all time; Amen.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of this Church

FREDERICK BURGESS, Second Bishop of Long Island, died at his home on October 15, 1925, aged seventy-two years. He was born in Providence, Rhode Island, on October 6, 1853, graduating from Brown University in 1873. For the three years following he was at the General Theological Seminary and Oxford University, England. In 1876 he was made Deacon by Bishop Niles, acting for Bishop Clark, and placed in charge of S. Mark's Church, Mendham, New Jersey. In 1877 he was ordained by Bishop Clark and filled the following rectorships. Grace Church, Amherst, Massachusetts, until 1883; Christ Church, Pomfret, Connecticut, until 1889; S. Asaph's Church, Bala, in this Diocese, until 1896; Christ Church, Detroit, Michigan, until 1898; and Grace Church, Brooklyn Heights, New York, until 1902. On January 15, 1902, he was consecrated Bishop by Bishops Potter, Doane and Scarborough. His failing health had required the election of a Coadjutor and prevented his presence at the meeting of the General Convention last fall.

EDWARD MELVILLE PARKER, Fourth Bishop of New Hampshire, was found dead in his hotel on October 22, 1925, at

New Orleans, Louisiana, during the meeting of the General Convention, aged seventy years. He was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts, on July 11, 1855, preparing for Holy Orders at Saint Paul's School, Concord, New Hampshire, at Oxford University, England, and at Berkeley Divinity School. He was made Deacon in 1879 and ordained two years later, both by Bishop Niles. From 1879 until 1906 he was a Master at Saint Paul's School, where his influence was widely felt, and in charge of Saint John's Mission at Dunbarton. He was consecrated Bishop-Coadjutor on February 9, 1906, by Bishops Niles, Lawrence and Hall, becoming Diocesan on March 31, 1914. His ministry is thus unique, being spent entirely in a single Diocese, where his intimate knowledge of the problems to be met and his enthusiastic interest in both native and foreign-born rendered him an ideal Chief Pastor. He was a Deputy to the General Convention of 1904 and Chaplain of the State National Guard during the late War.

Of Priests of this Diocese:

GEORGE ROGERS, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died at his home in Drexel Hill on June 2, 1925, in the eighty-first year of his age. He was born in Nottingham, England, on September 21, 1844, where he received his education, graduating from the University in 1873 and coming to this country in the year following. He settled in New England, where he was favorably known throughout Massachusetts and New Hampshire as a Presbyterian preacher. Deciding to study for Holy Orders, he was made Deacon by Bishop Howe, of Central Pennsylvania, in 1887, when he became Assistant Minister at Christ Church, Williamsport, and was ordained to the Priesthood in 1888. His first Rectorship was at S. James Church, Pittston, where he remained until 1890, when he accepted a call to S. Mark's Church, Lewistown. Eight years later he was transferred to this Diocese, being appointed Priest-in-charge of S. George's, West Philadelphia. In 1906 he retired from active work, since which time he has helped in such Parishes as have had need of assistance. Always interested in books, he spent much of his later years in study.

HENRI MOTIER GALLEY HUFF, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died very suddenly at his home in Overbrook, on August 10, 1925, in the seventy-first year of his age. Born in Paulsboro, New Jersey, on July 31, 1855, he graduated from the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1880, being made Deacon the same year by Bishop Stevens and ordained to the Priesthood by Deacon Lee of Delaware in 1882. During his Diaconate he served as Assistant Minister at the Church of The Incarnation, Philadelphia, accepting a call as Rector of Saint Mark's Church, Johnstown, Pennsylvania, at his ordination. Here he remained two years, when he became Rector of Saint Andrew's Church, Bridgeton, New Jersey, going from there to Saint Thomas' Church, Glassboro, in 1887. Four years later he returned to this Diocese as Assistant Minister of the Church of The Epiphany, Philadelphia, where he remained until 1896, since which time, except for a short period in 1899 as Assistant Minister at Saint Matthew's Church, he devoted himself to missionary work, acting as Locum Tenens on various occasions. He was Secretary to the Bishop and of the Convention of the Diocese from 1899 to 1904, as well as of the Divinity School, the Episcopal Hospital and the Trustees of the Diocese. He was a member of the Board of Triers for several years and always actively interested in Diocesan matters. About three years ago he suffered a slight paralytic stroke, which was the ultimate cause of his sudden death.

JOHN GRANT BAWN, Chaplain of Christ Church Hospital Philadelphia, died at Westmont, New Jersey, on August 28, 1925, in the eighty-seventh year of his age after an illness of two months. He was born in Belfast, Ireland, on June 29, 1839, and came to this country in his early childhood, receiving his education at the University of Pennsylvania, where he graduated in 1869, and at the Divinity School in Philadelphia, being a member of the class of 1871, in which year he was made Deacon by Bishop Stevens and ordained in 1872. From 1874 to 1876 he was Rector of the Church of Saint John the Evangelist. He was transferred to the Diocese of Delaware in 1877, but returned to this Diocese in 1878 as Priest-in-charge of Saint Barnabas, Haddington, where he remained for four years. He was Priest-in-charge of Epiphany Chapel in 1892, and of Christ Church, Franklinville, from 1907 to 1909; Assistant Minister at Saint Andrew's Church from 1896 to 1899, and at Saint Mark's Church, Frankford, from 1915 to 1919; a Diocesan Missionary in 1904 and 1905. In 1922 he accepted the Chaplaincy at Christ Church Hospital, where he remained until six weeks before his death, when increasing infirmities compelled him to resign. He was seventh in seniority in order of Canonical Residence among the Clergy, although virtually fourth, except for his short time in Delaware.

MICHELE ZARA, a retired Priest of this Diocese, died at the Episcopal Hospital after a two weeks illness on September 5, 1925, in the eighty-second year of his age. He was born in Italy on May 13, 1844, and ordained to the Roman Catholic ministry in 1866. For some time he was under-secretary at the Vatican, but was sent ultimately to Chicago to take charge of a church there. In November, 1882, he was received into the Ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church by the Rt. Rev. William Bacon Stevens of this Diocese and placed in charge of the Italian Mission which was started a month later and has now become L'Emmanuello. He retired from active duty in 1903, since which time he gave his services gladly as they were needed. In his early ministry he translated the Book of Common Prayer into Italian.

DANIEL INGALLS ODELL, Rector Emeritus of the Church of The Annunciation, Philadelphia, died on September 24, 1925, in the seventy-fourth year of his age. Born in Eastport, Maine, on June 16, '1852, he was graduated from Racine College, Wisconsin, in 1874, and from Nashotah House in 1877, being made Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood in the same year. During the forty-six years of his active ministry he filled the following cures: Priest-Assistant at the Church of The Annunciation, Philadelphia, 1886 to 1887; and at Trinity Church, New York City, 1887 to 1890; Rector at S. Mary's Church, East Providence, Rhode Island, 1877 to 1885; at S. Mary's Church, South Portsmouth, 1885 to 1886; at S. Luke's Church, Chelsea, Massachusetts, 1890 to 1893; at the Church of The Annunciation, Philadelphia, 1893 to 1923, when he was forced to retire on account of his health and was elected Rector-Emeritus. He was the Founder and Warden of S. Mary's Orphanage, East Providence, Rhode Island, from 1877 to 1885.

Of Deputies to this Convention:

FRANK JOHN PRYOR, JR., of S. Philip's Church, West Philadelphia, died on April 11, 1926, in his sixtieth year. Elected a Vestryman in 1919, he served as a Deputy at the Conventions of 1920 to 1925, and had been elected also for the present year.

Of Deputies to the Last Convention:

ABRAM ERNEST BRECHT, of Calvary Church, Germantown, died on June 19, 1925. He was a Deputy at eleven Conventions, commencing in 1915 and including the Special Convention of 1924.

ALBERT LEWIS EDGERTON CROUTER, of Grace Church, Mount Airy, died on June 26, 1925, in his seventy-ninth year. Elected a Vestryman in 1898, he served as Rector's Warden from 1901 and as Deputy from 1899. He came to the Diocese in 1882 as Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf, an interest which made him a most valued member of the Commission on Church Work among the Deaf, as well as on the Committee in charge of All Souls Mission.

LOUIS DALMAS, of Christ Church, Ridley Park, died on October 14, 1925. A Vestryman for twenty-nine years, he served as Deputy since 1901.

CLEMENT STOCKER PHILLIPS, of the Church of The Good Samaritan, Paoli, died on October 20, 1925, in his seventy-ninth year. An organization member of the Parish, he served as Rector's Warden and as Deputy to the Convention from its incorporation in 1903.

CHARLES WOEHR, JR., of Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, died on December 19, 1925. He was Accounting Warden of the Parish and a Deputy since 1922.

CHARLES STANLEY FRENCH, of the George W. South Memorial Church of The Advocate, Philadelphia, died on January 31, 1926, in his sixty-ninth year. He was a Trustee of the Church and Accounting Warden of the Parish, serving as Deputy to the Convention since 1916.

MILTON EDWARD ULMER, of the George W. South Memorial Church of The Advocate, Philadelphia, died on January 5, 1926. He was a Trustee of the Church, a valued member of the Vestry and a Deputy to the Convention since 1910.

Of Deputies to Former Conventions:

RUSH ROWLAND, of Trinity Church, Oxford, Philadelphia, died on May 25, 1925. Elected a Deputy in 1899, he served for twenty-two years.

GEORGE HARRISON FISHER, of St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia, died on December 28, 1925, in his seventy-seventh year. Elected to the Vestry in 1877, he served as Accounting Warden from 1880 until 1924 and as Deputy from 1886 until 1924. He was a former member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese and Treasurer of The Christmas Fund from 1884 until ill health compelled his resignation in 1924. He was a Vestryman also of Trinity Church, Oxford, Philadelphia, and of the Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown.

Of Vestrymen:

Alexander Brown Coxe, Church of The Good Samaritan, Paoli; Harry Banks French, Church of The Good Shepherd, Rosemont, donor of the Church building, Vestryman for more than forty years and Rector's Warden; William Bunn Kurtz, Calvary Church, Germantown, Trustee of the Church Farm School and of the Divinity School; Louis Rice Lemoine, Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia; Clement Buckley Newbold, Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown, and of S. James the Less, Philadelphia, Trustee of The Christmas Fund; Edward Roberts Stone, S. Matthew's Church, Philadelphia, for forty-one years, and Rector's Warden for fourteen years; William W. Thomson, S. Matthew's Church, Philadelphia, for twenty-nine years, and Secretary for twenty-five years.

Of Deaconesses:

CAROLINE HAMLIN SANFORD died on December 30, 1925, in her seventy-second year. Serving under Bishop Whitaker in Nevada, she came to this Diocese in 1891 and was the Founder of the Church Training and Deaconess House, where she served as House Mother until 1913, when failing health compelled her resignation.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese

The Treasurer desires to submit the audited report of the Treasurer of the Diocese and especially to direct attention to certain salient features.

A study of the whole report, which comprises 316 items, will show the amounts and sources of all receipts, together with the direction and amounts of all expenditures, and if any member of the Convention can make suggestions which will develop additional information of value to the Convention, such suggestions will be cordially welcomed by the Treasurer.

Especial attention is directed to the unusual arrangement which the Treasurer has been able to establish with the bankers of the Diocese, Drexel & Co., through the good offices of the partners, more especially Mr. Thomas S. Gates, former Treasurer of the Diocese, whereby a flexible credit to a limited amount has been established, so that if the funds deposited with the bank are not sufficient for the current requirements of any monthly period, it has been possible to "Overdraw" on our account. This, in fact, effects a loan to the Diocese of the funds of Drexel & Co. without the more or less cumbersome necessity of making a note, which the Diocese is not organized to do, and this method is therefore applicable only in the case of such a most advantageous arrangement with a private bank; it being not possible to make such an arrangement with either a national bank or a trust company, so the Treasurer desires to ask that the Convention extend to Drexel & Co. its appreciation of this most unusual and very great accommodation.

If the reader will refer to item 16½ and to item 34, it will be found that the borrowings under this "Overdraft" system during 1925 have cost the Diocese in interest payments $822.96 and that the detailed overdrafts by months are as shown under item 34 "note." It will thus be manifest that beginning the year with a small overdraft of $5771 the moneys applicable to Diocesan purposes came in so slowly that this overdraft rose steadily through the year until as of September 30th it amounted to $43,159; a sum so large that the officers of the Diocese were greatly concerned at the amount necessary to borrow. Then, during the months of November and December, 1925, the income from the Parishes of the Diocese applicable to diocesan purposes was such that we could close the year with an overdraft of only $5093. The obvious deduction is that the irregularity of the income applied to the regularity of the outgoing requirements cost the Diocese $822 in interest and stretched its credit during the month of October to an alarming amount of money. The desire of the Treasurer is that the Convention shall realize the cost, the danger and the importance of failing to send in the moneys collected in a rate as regular as that of the required expenditures.

While the Diocese must pay out with almost entire regularity nearly the same sums each month, the parishes do not remit with like regularity.

The Financial Clerk has prepared the following table showing clearly the extent of this regularity.

Column "A" shows the number of parishes who remitted the moneys due Diocese in the time intervals shown in Column "B"; for example, 63 parishes sent money but once a year and but 6 parishes sent money monthly as all should. Rectors, Missionaries and Officers would do well to ask the Treasurer's office how "my parish" paid in during 1925.

Attention is also directed to item 31, "Loan to Church of St. John the Divine, $7154." This is an extraordinary expenditure made necessary by an emergency in that most worthy parish, and ordered to be expended by the Council so that property values of the congregation might be saved from disaster. This item, while a loan, is a "frozen loan." and is therefore not carried in current assets in the balance sheet.

Attention is now directed to lines 30 and 32, showing that, had we not been obliged to pay $7154 and deducting from this sum the amount of the overdraft in line 30 as of December 31st of $5093, there would have been as a result of the current operations for 1925 within the Diocese a cash balance of $2061.

Especially is attention directed to lines 35 to 41, inclusive, outlining the sources of the receipts during 1925 of the large sum of $548,991, and in lines 46 to 53, a comparison of these receipts with the same items of 1924.

It is, of course, a matter of great regret and concern that the remittances on account of our apportionment from the National Council do not more closely approach the allocation from the National Council to this Diocese of $334,880 for Maintenance of the Church's Missionary work through the National Council. Against this sum, it will be found, in item 64 that we sent the sum of $185,060, and in the report of the Executive Council this matter will be more fully discussed, together with the comforting statement that for 1926 the Executive Council has ASSURED the National Council of the receipts from this Diocese on the same basis, of a sum of $250,000 at least.

The Treasurer's office desires to record its grateful appreciation of the ready and glad assistance of all the financial agencies of the Diocese and of the several Parishes and Missions in the collection and preparation of the records, including many complicated and difficult items which are comprised in the Treasurer's report submitted herewith.

BENJ. WEST FRAZIER, Treasurer.

W. P. BARBA,
Assistant Treasurer.

APPENDIX G

Report of the Executive Council

As usual this report will refer briefly only to the more important results of the year's work; for further information reference is made to the reports of the various Departments.

Members

The Council during the year has decided to invite to its meetings the representative of the Diocese on the National Council and the Chancellor of the Diocese. Previously the Clergyman in charge of the work among the Foreign-born and the Diocesan Missionary have been receiving similar invitations.

Department of Missions and Church Extension

An interesting resolution was adopted in June, that the Treasurers of all Missions in the Diocese be notified that each Mission would be expected to increase the amount it already pays to its Missionary for the year 1926 by 10 per cent above the amount contributed for 1925, unless it could show good cause for the old rate in conference with its Convocational authorities.

The resolution represents an important policy. It was carried out very heartily in certain of the Convocations, and it is hoped that as time goes on and the value of the principle is better understood, it will become generally observed.

The Church of Saint Sauveur, which Parish is now in charge of the Archdeacon of Work among Foreign-born, has been offered for sale, and the congregation is worshiping in one of the adjoining parish churches.

On somewhat the same principle, namely, that the work among the Foreign-born should not be indefinitely continued unless the results justify it from year to year, the budget for the Italian work for the year 1926 was reduced by the sum of $2,000, the feeling of the Council was that, prima facie at least, the results did not justify the large expenditure for this work and that the money could more wisely be spent in other directions.

An appropriation was voted towards an addition to the main building at Edgely, with the usual proviso that the additional fund required be raised by the Mission or the Convocation.

Department of Religious Education

This Department has been actively pursuing its usual activities during the year. At the June meeting of the Council a resolution was adopted requesting the Bishop to make inquiries with respect to available material for the post of Secretary of the Department of Religious Education. The Bishop has been considering various suggestions for this important post, and on April 6, 1926, appointed the Rev. Frederick E. Seymour, who will begin the work as soon as possible.

Department of Christian Social Service and Institutions

The most striking incident of the year has been the problem that arose with respect to the House of The Holy Child. This Diocesan Institution decided to remove its operations from the city of Philadelphia, and had a favorable offer for its property, but its plans to have a new property at Ambler with the necessary improvements entailed an additional mortgage of $30,000 with an annual interest charge of $1,800. After careful consideration the Finance Department recommended the appropriation of this money, with the understanding, however, that the Managers shall undertake to reduce the loan so made, as rapidly as possible. The property was finally purchased on these terms. The incident showed in a rather striking way how the whole strength of the Diocese can be, through the Executive Council, brought to bear upon a given situation which may arise quite suddenly and which the Institution affected may be quite unable to handle by itself.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The representative of the Publicity Department took an active part in the production of the moving picture showing the activities of the Diocese. This picture was produced at the General Convention at New Orleans and has been subsequently shown in the Diocese, first at the meeting of the Church Club, which generously paid the entire expense of the film, and later at many meetings of Convocations and other meetings throughout the Diocese. It gives a very realistic picture of many of the activities of the Diocese and ought to be helpful in emphasizing the many sides of Diocesan life.

CHURCH NEWS: It is gratifying to record that the Church News, possibly for the first time in its history, produced a surplus of $802 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1925. This Diocesan organ seems to be more firmly established than ever before in its history, and now that it is on a firm financial basis, has an opportunity for further development along the lines of increasing circulation, even at the expense of considerable outlay.

CHURCH EXTENSION FUND: The Department Director continues to serve as Secretary of the Fund, and the Fund has been more efficiently handled than ever before. The calls in 1925 were for rectory at Advent, Kennett Square; lot at Redeemer Mission, Springfield, and new site and building at Transfiguration Mission in South Philadelphia.

COMMISSION ON RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

This, the most recent of the Departments of the Council, has been one of the most active. It appearing during the year that some churches were especially interested in this phase of Diocesan effort, the Council voted to increase the Budget item for this purpose to $4,600, with the understanding that contributions by the churches for such purpose to the amount of $4,600 should count on the quotas of the contributing Parishes. This considerable fund is the very real evidence of the ability of the Diocese to function through the Council along lines which had proved to be impossible under the older system.

FIELD DEPARTMENT

At the April meeting of the Council it was Resolved: That a Committee of six be appointed by the Bishop to consider the functions of a Field Department to the Executive Council and to report upon the same. This step grew out of the general feeling that there was needed in the Diocese a Department corresponding to the Field Department of the National Council which should more actively concern itself with the dissemination of knowledge of the work of the Church and the raising of funds for it. At the June meeting of the Council following the report of the Committee, it was Resolved: That the duties of such Field Department be temporarily referred to the Executive Committee, which should try out various methods and report its conclusions. The matter is an important one, and the Executive Committee is proceeding deliberately, and it is hoped that careful consideration will result in a decision which will be of value to the organization of the Council.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The year 1925 has been an important one in the Missionary life of the Diocese. The General Convention at New Orleans adopted a new financial policy which included two main thoughts. The first was the clearing up of the accumulated deficit of the National Council over a term of years, which, including an estimate for 1925, amounted to a total of about $1,500,000.

At New Orleans the various Dioceses undertook to raise various portions of this sum; Pennsylvania, through its Bishop, undertaking to raise its estimated share of $160,000.

A Committee under the vigorous leadership of Mr. Joseph Wayne, Jr., has been hard at work on this difficult task and at the date of this report has raised over $139,000 towards this total and expects to be able to complete its task successfully. Much credit is due Mr. Wayne and his Committee for their very earnest efforts. Similar efforts in other directions have been equally successful outside of the Diocese, so that much the larger part of this deficit, which has been a load around the neck of the National Council, is now out of the way with a considerable saving in interest charges.

In connection with this deficit Bishop Murray, the new Presiding Bishop, and the President of the National Council, visited the Diocese on December 31st; he was entertained at dinner by the friends of the Missionary effort, and at a subsequent meeting in Holy Trinity Church was officially informed of the results of the efforts of Mr. Wayne's Committee and made an appropriate address.

The second important plank in the new platform was a resolution which in effect prohibited the National Council as far as possible from incurring deficits in the future; this could only be accomplished either by large increases in the contributions from the various Dioceses or by substantial decreases of the existing work of the National Council. The resolution required the National Council to cut the work in proportion to the sums that might be expected from the various Dioceses. As many Dioceses, including Pennsylvania, had been giving to the National Council sums far below the amounts requested of them, it became immediately an acute and pressing question how far such Dioceses would increase their promises for 1926 beyond the sums previously given. In Pennsylvania, for example, the sum asked for for 1926 was approximately $316,000, but the sums contributed through the National Council were only about $186,000 in 1924 and $185,000 in 1925. After careful consideration the Council's first action was to promise to the National Council $200,000 from Pennsylvania for the year 1926, and the Quota Committee made a vigorous effort to apportion among the various Parishes additional sums which would enable such increase to be made. Even this figure of $200,000 being so far below the $316,000 asked for, the Executive Council took the further step of authorizing the appointment of a Committee which would try to raise $50,000 additional from individuals for this important purpose. The reason for this step was the feeling of the Council that the people of means in our Diocese probably escaped under the present system from paying their fair share of the larger sums which the Diocese is now called upon to contribute. Later, when it became clear that substantial reductions in the work of the National Council were pending, the Executive Council took the additional step (largely on faith) of increasing its pledge to the National Council to a total of $250,000. In spite of this step, and in spite of similar increases through the Dioceses, the National Council at its February meeting cut its appropriations for the year 1926 by a sum in excess of $160,000. This cut is a great blow both to the Missionaries themselves and also to the many who believe that the Missionary work of our Church ought certainly not to be reduced, but at the date of this report no further action has been taken by our Executive Council.

Perhaps, as part of the program of the National Council, it should be added that the General Convention authorized the appointment of a special committee to consider the basis of apportionments of Missionary moneys among the different Dioceses. This Committee is at work and it is possible that its efforts may result in a revision of the basis of apportionment heretofore used by the National Council.

The Diocesan side of the work of the Finance Department has gone forward steadily under the able leadership of the Budget Committee, headed by Rev. Mr. Pember, and the Quota Committee, headed by Rev. Mr. Stockman. Only those entirely familiar with the work of the Diocese can adequately realize the value of the work of these Committees and their very efficient Chairmen. The decisions of the Budget Committee with respect to the items that shall appear on the Budget each year are practically conclusive in the mind of the Council, and the Quota Committee has been unfailing in its efforts to induce the Parishes through our system of expectations to contribute the sums required both for our Diocesan budget and also for the contributions for which we are called upon by the National Council.

It is proper to note in this report that our Executive Council some time ago authorized the participation of the Diocese in the drive to raise $750,000 for the erection and endowment of a suitable building in which to carry on the valuable Y. M. C. A. work at the University of Pennsylvania. This drive took. place in January, 1926, under the leadership of Mr. Benjamin W. Frazier and over $650,000 was raised, towards which members of our Church contributed liberally. At the date of this report it seems likely that the balance will be fully realized.

During the year a crisis arose with reference to the affairs of St. John the Divine, a colored congregation, which for years has been carrying on a new work at Fifty-seventh and Vine Streets without any financial assistance from the Diocese. Matters had reached the point where mortgages on the property were about to be foreclosed unless the Diocese came to the rescue of this unfortunate congregation. Although without a precedent for such a transaction, the Council voted a loan to the church of $7,100, which saved the situation. This is still another illustration of the results that can be secured through the medium of the Executive Council. The Council was obliged to rely upon its general ability to borrow in order to take care of this situation, and some means will have to be secured to pay off the resulting loan.

On December 31, 1925, there was an overdraft in the Treasurer's account of $5,093.02, this being due principally to the loan above referred to of $7,100 to St. John the Divine. The total givings by Parishes applying on Quotas amounted to $383,407.65 as compared with $386,069.99 in 1924. Large sums, of course, were realized for Priorities and Specials.

REYNOLDS D. BROWN,
Executive Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION TO THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Department has held its meetings each month through the year and has considered such matters as had been referred to it by the Bishop, the Council, or the various Convocations. The missionary work of the Diocese makes steady progress, perhaps in some cases slow, but, we believe, on the whole, sure. Each year the Department makes the same complaint that there is no adequate fund for the purpose of buying sites, or the erection of buildings. The Executive Council has already come close to the limit of the possibilities of the method which it adopted some years ago for taking advantage of outstanding opportunities and meeting pressing needs. At that time we began the practice of authorizing the purchase of ground and the erection of parts of buildings with such sums of money as were available, putting the rest on mortgage, the Council guaranteeing the interest thereon and making it one of the regular items of the annual Budget. Each year these interest charges have steadily grown until now they amount to nearly $6,000, because practically none of the principal has been paid off. We have probably reached the limit of what we can do in this way until some considerable portion of these mortgages have been paid. This situation, we hope, will be greatly ameliorated, if not cured entirely, by the "Survey." The reports of the Deans of Convocations, which are appended, refer to the outstanding features of the year in Convocation.

The work among the Colored People has its encouraging features, notably a decided increase of vitality and activity in St. Mary's, Chester, where it is hoped very shortly a suitable building will be erected.

The work among the Poles goes on steadily, being conducted with energy and zeal by those immediately in charge under the direction of Archdeacon White. The great pressing need in this work at present is a Church for the Polish Mission of The Redeemer, which for years has been conducting its work and worship at St. George's Mission, Richmond.

During the year the Department, through a special committee, has been making a serious study of our work among the Italians which in some ways has been a great problem. The work at St. Mary of The Annunciation shows signs of growth and future prospects. It seems clear, however, that the location of L'Emmanuello is bad and it is hoped that that property may be sold ultimately and a new property bought in a more suitable locality.

The Church Extension Fund continues to be our one dependable source of funds for special needs. In 1924 we received from the three calls $10,082.75 and in 1925 $12,010.

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The work of the Convocation of Chester is always interesting because of its varieties. That section that lies along the Delaware River played a most important part in the history of the late war. Ships, arms and locomotives supplied one great need of the people, while the textile works supplied another. This section of the Convocation may be called the "Industrial" portion. In it we have the Parishes of S. Stephen's, Norwood, Christ Church, Ridley Park, and those in Chester and Marcus Hook. We have also the interesting missions of S. James', Prospect Park, S. John's, Essington, and S. Luke's, Eddystone. In all of these faithful and successful work is conducted.

All Saints', Darby, is doing a fine work under the faithful leadership of the Rev. Charles A. Ricksecker.

Trinity, Collingdale, with the Rev. Dr. Davies at the head, is making most substantial progress. The property owned by the Mission has become so valuable, that it has been proposed to sell, and buy in a desirable residential section. It is hoped that the proceeds will materially assist in the building.

On the Baltimore Central Railroad we have beautiful suburban territory, but all our Missions in this section have become Parishes.

In and around Upper Darby there has been a wonderful growth of population and a still more wonderful outlook. Incarnation, Drexel Hill, Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, and S. Giles, Stonehurst, are located in this section and are sharing in this growth. Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, should be enlarged to meet the demands made upon it, or superseded by a larger building. S. Giles is occupying the basement of what will eventually be a Parish Building.

Incarnation, Drexel Hill, has a fine Parish building in which the Church Services are held. A new Rectory has also been built.

Springfield, our last—and extremely promising—Mission has paid for its lot and plans are prepared for buildings The people have been compelled to be satisfied with an Evening Service, but it is hoped that regular morning services will be started at an early date.

From Kennett, work and influence have radiated into the surrounding country. The Rev. Mr. Spalding has been most successful in the upbuilding of the Church of the Advent, a Memorial to Bayard Taylor. He has also ministered to our small groups of Communicants in New London and Oxford.

The Rev. Mr. Sanford has been most faithful and successful in the care of S. John's, Concord, and S. Luke's, Chadd's Ford. Both these places have shown, not a great, but a steady, growth.

Ascension, Parkesburg, continues its substantial work under the Rev. A. A. Lamb, of Coatesville.

Dr. Agate at S. Mary's, Warwick, and Mr. Holcombe at S. Mark's, Honeybrook, are most effectively solving the rural problem. The influence of each of these Missionaries is very great and far reaching.

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

THE DEAN'S REPORT

Missionary Opportunity is calling to the Convocation of Germantown in every direction. The Parish House of the House of Prayer, Branchtown, erected by the combined efforts of the little Parish and the Diocese, is the important material effort of the year. The earnest rector and his people could not have obtained this needed equipment alone. This new policy of aiding small parishes that need missionary assistance will be of great value in rapidly growing neighborhoods. The night of the dedication of the Parish House at Branchtown the chauffeur said, "I know where it is. I was here three years ago. It is out in the country." He could not find it. That quiet countryside of three years ago was covered with stores and dwelling houses.

This same thing is taking place in the Northeast; in Northwood where a Mission should have been established; in Oxford Circle and from there to Bustleton; in the Tabor section. In the Northwest, from the Stenton Avenue development on the one side to the upper Roxborough development on the other, are large building operations which are turning open country into city. Now is the time to get the land before real estate values become prohibitive.

The Incarnation, Morrisville, continues its steady progress. The receipts of the Mission increased 25 per cent over last year. A Men's Club has been established; and a Boy's Club has been started. The Community House has put in bowling alleys and finished the heating plant at a cost of $5000. The Episcopal Church and the Community House take the Central place in the life of the town.

The Country Centre Mission has been blessed the past year in having the oversight of such a devoted Missionary as the Rev. Jules L. Prevost. Dr. Prevost's record for self-sacrifice in Alaska was one of the finest in our history of Missions; and he is giving the same splendid service in Bucks County. The Mission has been reorganized; Hulmeville and Edgeley and Somerton have been placed in his care. While two or three years must be given for results, already there are good signs.

Langhorne reports 43 families connected with the Church, while last year's report shows 25. Offerings and subscriptions were $3300, last year they were $2500. It is expected that the final payments on the new church organ can be made this year, and relieve the congregation of that burden.

A plan to help the Mission get a Parish House and the Missionary a place to live in Langhorne, while started this year and brought to a successful conclusion, really belongs to next year's report. It will prove of great benefit to the whole County Centre Work.

Southampton shows signs of improvement. New Hope has a larger attendance than last year. Centre Hill is larger both in Communicants and offerings. Edgeley has had 24 baptisms instead of 4 and a Confirmation Class of 16. The Sunday School has increased so that an extra room will have to be built for the Infant Class.

The great difficulty has been to get a clergyman to assist Dr. Prevost in this missionary work. We are glad that another name famous in the missionary history of the Episcopal Church is to be added to that of Prevost, namely, the Rev. Charles E. Spalding, who has joined the Country Centre Mission and will be located at Somerton.

St. Gabriel, Feltonville, reports another prosperous year. The basement of the Parish House has met a great need. The hard working Missionary has presented a Confirmation Class of 21; and the offerings and subscriptions have been over $5000.

St. Barnabas, Germantown, has found that its basement Parish House is becoming the Community Centre for the colored people of Germantown. We must complete this building as soon as possible. The Mission has by earnest effort raised $2500 to build the second floor. With the aid of Convocation the other buildings have been newly painted and the whole property is in fine condition. The Missionary presented a Class of 24 for confirmation.

Emmanuel Church, Quakertown, by its good Missionary has continued regular ministrations in the town; and has held services at Iveyville and Sellersville. The canvass for pledges showed a good increase for all objects. A new furnace has been put in the Parish House; and new Hymnals in the Church.

St. Andrew, Yardley, reports "a better condition than for some years." The Missionary has presented a fine class of 11 for confirmation. In three years 31 have been confirmed. This means much in the life of a small parish. The offerings have increased by $500. The Rev. Francis B. Barnett also has charge of St. Wilfred, Dolington, where he holds Services every Sunday.

The prosperous condition of the Convocation depends upon "the man behind the gun." It is greatly blessed in the calibre of its missionaries who are so faithfully doing their work.

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

REPORT OF THE DEAN TO THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS FOR THE YEAR 1925

There have been two changes in the personnel of the missionaries of the Convocation of Norristown during the year. Early in the year the Rev. Charles F. Scofield assumed charge of Epiphany Mission, Royersford, in connection with his work at St. James Church, Evansburg, and under his care the work at Royersford has progressed very encouragingly.

In October Mr. Alfred W. Price began his work as Lay Reader at Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, relieving Mr. George H. Randall from the active oversight of that work to which he has given five years of devoted volunteer service. We want to take this opportunity to record the grateful appreciation of Convocation for his self-sacrificing labors for the people of this Mission by acting as its Treasurer and visiting it as often as his other duties will permit.

Three of our Missions have responded to the appeal of the Executive Council to increase their contributions to the support of their missionaries: Epiphany Mission, Royersford; Advent Mission, Hatboro; and St. Anne's Mission, Willow Grove, have each pledged an increase of 10 per cent during the present year.

The Missions of Convocation have been very generous contributors to the general missionary work of the Church, the gifts of three having averaged between 10 and 15 per cent of their total contributions for all purposes.

There have been splendid Confirmation classes at Advent, Hatboro; St. Anne's, Willow Grove; and Holy Trinity, Lansdale, indicating that the Church is making real progress in these places where the growth has been slow for many years and giving us every reason to look for substantial growth in the years which lie ahead. Undoubtedly, if we can secure the additional equipment called for in the survey, Parish Houses for Hatboro and Lansdale and the first unit of a new Church for Willow Grove, a great impetus will be given to this development.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The Convocation of North Philadelphia comprises one of the most densely populated and largest industrial centers in the world. There are great problems confronting many of the Parishes due to removals and shifting population, and the district of Kensington is a constant challenge to our special interest and responsibility. It has been pointed out that this Convocation is larger in Churches and Communicants than two thirds of the Dioceses of our Church, while we also note that a large part of the work among the foreign born is carried on in our midst. The report of the Archdeacon will show the needs of these Missions, but they all need our interest and fostering care. Within our borders are also many of our Church Institutions.

In our part of the diocesan survey is included the debt on St. George's, Richmond, amounting to $20,000, and parish buildings for St. George's, Venango, and St. Augustine's.

The work at St. George's, Richmond, continues on a large scale, and the long ministry of the Rev. A. J. Arkin is one of the outstanding achievements of the Diocese. The contract for extensive repairs to the church roof has been given out, and the cost has been provided from the Church Extension call for January, 1926.

There is a great future for St. Ambrose Mission, and under the Rev. Frederick B. Halsey the past year has been one of steady development. The Mission has just completed, after six years' effort, the wiping out of a $5400 debt and has added $1000 for the Parish House to the budget for next year. A gift of $300 will be used for beautifying the grounds with trees and flowers. As the rooms in the basement of the church are now overcrowded, there is urgent need for a complete parish house, and land for this purpose adjoins the church. It would be impossible for the people of this Mission to raise the money for a parish house, and it should therefore be one of the priorities in the forward work.

At St. George's, Venango, a very remarkable development has taken place under the ministry of the Rev. Arnold H. Hord, who by his love and devotion has transformed this Mission. The chapel and the grounds have been put in order and many beautiful additions made to the chapel furnishings, while the attendance has been more than doubled. A large group of men are now working for the chapel, and the outlook is most promising. This Mission needs a parish hall, perhaps with one story and a basement, which can be used as a community centre, as there is no place in the neighborhood where people can meet together. Fortunately for St. Augustine's, the beloved pastor, the Rev. Henry S. McDuffy, has been able to continue his work among the colored people, and much efficient help has been given by the Rev. J. H. Hudson, his assistant. Through a long ministry Mr. McDuffey has labored with constant industry and abounding faith, and has built up one of the largest and most successful Missions in the Diocese, which promises in the near future, to become an independent and self-supporting Parish.

The Rev. Warren R. Smaltz is doing a splendid work among the deaf and is keeping up the fine traditions of All Souls Church, which is the only Mission in Philadelphia ministering entirely to deaf people, and the congregation is drawn from all over the city and from many places outside.

As a Convocation, we are again deeply grateful for the cooperation of the Woman's Aid, and the assistance they have given to the work. Under the leadership of Miss Laura Bell, the meetings have been largely attended and a greater sum of money realized than ever before.

We also desire to thank Mr. Casper Wister Haines and his sister Miss Haines for their gracious hospitality in welcoming us for the annual lawn fete, which was held again last June at their beautiful and historic place "Wyck" in Germantown.

We have no deaf children, hence no Sunday School. Deaf children are usually in residence at some secular school.

Amount listed under "Collections" includes $2147.36 which was raised by parish organizations to make extraordinary improvements in basement of Parish House.

Amount received from Diocese turned over to "Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf."

‡ There is no Sunday School, but a day school with religious instruction.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

South Philadelphia continues to be more and more densely indwelt by people of the negro race and many foreign races, particularly those of Southern Europe. As more and more people who formerly made up the membership of the Episcopal Parishes in this district give way before the incoming tide of other peoples, the Parishes suffer. The activities, which before were entered upon by the former parishioners of these Parishes, are more and more given up and in their place no activities are created, for the Church has little wisdom in dealing with folk of any other sort than her own.

With the advent of the automobile our civilization underwent a revolution. It scattered our well-to-do urban population over the countryside. This probably means the end of the era of the building of large city churches. It also means that the churches left behind by their receding congregations must find it more and more difficult to support themselves, unless they have adequate endowments, and so are unable for any aggressive campaign of work among the foreigners and colored people dwelling all about them.

Many of the streets, many of the courtyards, and many of the houses are not fit for human beings of any color, of any creed, or of any race. Filth in the streets, law-breaking in the alleys, immoralities in the dives are all about us and focused into a picture of a well-nigh hopeless citizenry.

The real forefront of the Church's life, her firing line and the place for pioneering today, lie in the neglected parts of the life of the great cities; and the Church, God pity her, stands helplessly by with no program, and not knowing what to do save only to shake her head in regret and sorrow, like an old grandmother at a not-understood and wayward child. The public school is doing its best to make Americans of these children of the foreign-born, but the Church is doing little or nothing to make them Christians.

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The work of our two Missions in this Convocation has gone on steadily and well for the past year. There have been gains despite the movements of the people and both Missionaries deserve commendation for their work.

When the Survey of the Diocese shall have been completed, it will be possible to undertake the adjustments as to new sites and other questions arising out of the changing conditions which disturb the Church's work at the present time.

Annual Report of the Trustees of the Diocese

The Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania report that they organized May 21, 1925, by the election of Mr. Edmund B. McCarthy as Secretary and Mr. J. Barton Towsend as Treasurer, and by the appointment of the Standing Committees provided for in their by-laws.

Accepted titles to St. George's, Richmond; St. Mary's, Chester; All Saint's, Darby; Glenside Mission; St. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming.

Accepted by Deed of Trust from Trinity, Swarthmore, certain securities and cash to be invested as an Endowment Fund, the income to be paid to Trinity, Swarthmore, for its work.

Accepted Deed of Trust of a property situated in Springfield as a site for a church for the Mission of the Redeemer, Springfield.

Accepted the Trust conferred upon it by the deed executed by the Church of St. John the Divine conveying premises on the west side of 57th Street north of Vine Street.

At a meeting held January 21, 1926, approval was given to the transfer of a bronze tablet placed in St. John's Church, Northern Liberties, by the widow of Mr. Grafly to Emmanuel Church at Marlborough and Girard Avenue.

Accepted a Trust Fund of $3434.97 received under the will of William T. Anderson, the annual income from which to be paid over for the support of the Church work among Deaf Mutes.

At a meeting held April 15, 1926, the Trustees approved of the sale of the present property of Trinity Mission, Collingdale, and the purchase of a new site.

Report of the Registrar

Some years ago, the Convention authorized the Registrar to obtain possession of the Registers of Parishes that had ceased to exist and to keep them, with other valuable records, in the fire-proof vault of the Church House.

The Registrars of five such Parishes are now in the custody of the Registrar.

The records of old St. Paul's Parish, Third Street below Walnut, dating back to about the year 1760, are of special interest and value to a large number of persons who find in them a storehouse of genealogical information. The Registrar gives no small part of his time to making long and tedious searches among these ancient records for those who desire information about their families.

The other Registers, of more recent date, are chiefly of interest to those who apply for certified copies of the records of their baptism and confirmation.

The Registrar calls attention to these facts to show the importance of sending to him for preservation the records of Parishes that have ceased to exist.

Many old Registers have apparently been lost or destroyed. They have never been turned over to the Diocese. What has become of them? They may still be in possession of families formerly connected with those old churches. The Registrar would be glad to have information as to the present whereabouts of any of these old books in order that he may acquire them for the Diocese before it is too late.

The Registrar preserves all copies of old Journals of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and he is always glad to receive them. They are frequently in demand by state, college and diocesan libraries that need them to complete their files. During the past year we were able to supply almost a complete series of the early Journals of Pennsylvania required by the Diocese of Wyoming.

All books and papers of any value in this office have been classified and there is a complete and accurate index of all material relating to the parishes.

A. H. HORD,
Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

May 1, 1926.

APPENDIX M

Report of the Committee on Parochial History

This Committee respectfully reports that having completed the cataloguing of the historic data in the Registrar's room, it has during the past year endeavored to bring up the histories of the various parishes of the Diocese to at least a recent date.

After considerable correspondence it has secured five such histories. Among these it must mention the very complete, and beautifully edited one of S. Matthew's Church, Francisville.

It has also secured the promises of twelve others, one to include a review of the whole movement, originating in 1859, to provide services in the sign language for Deaf Mutes, resulting finally in the erection of the beautiful All Souls' Church for that purpose.

The Committee has also added a large number of newspaper clippings to their scrap-books of pictures and histories of the Churches and Missions of the Diocese.

It will be remembered that, during 1916 and 1917, the Rev. Mr. Hartshorne prepared and had printed in the Diocesan News, a large number of these, which are entered in these books; so that down to those dates we have fairly complete accounts of our various Churches.

But some of the sketches are very short, giving but little information in regard to them. It is, therefore, most desirable that we should have fuller real histories of our various Parishes and Missions, coming down, if possible, to the present date.

Will not the Rectors and Ministers-in-charge see that this is done, sending the result of their investigations to the Committee? It would save the members of the Committee an immense amount of labor, if, otherwise, they are obliged to make an individual application to each such Clergyman.

May the Committee suggest that it might be of advantage to a Clergyman, if before assuming the charge of a Church, he would make use of the material the Committee has in the Registrar's room, giving him information in regard to its history?

In behalf of the Committee:

G. WOOLSEY HODGE, Chairman.

APPENDIX N

Report of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions

The Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions herewith presents its Annual Report to the Diocesan Convention. The itemized account of its financial operations is included in the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

I. Pensions

The Clergy of the Diocese are fully protected in the matter of their pensions, the premiums having been paid in full up to December 31st, 1925. This has been accomplished, however, by the use of $417.00 from the Sustentation Fund to take care of premiums not paid by the parishes. In one or two cases, due to peculiar circumstances, it seemed both necessary and right to make these payments and cancel the indebtedness of the parish. There are, however, five other cases where the parishes and institutions concerned should pay, and we hope to collect the amounts due from them, ranging from $2.25 to $91.80. These five parishes and one institution owe a total of $245.00. If they pay this amount it will mean that the Diocese will have to absorb for the year's operations in this Department only about $175.00. In a Diocese with something over three hundred clergymen, totaling salaries of nearly Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars, and Pension Assessments of more than Fifty Thousand Dollars, it is a most creditable showing to have those clergy fully protected at an expense to the Sustentation Fund of less than $200.00. It shows a thorough-going interest and co-operation on the part of parochial authorities with the Commission, and the Commission makes grateful acknowledgment of this help. At the same time the Commission feels that it is necessary to point out again to vestrymen, and especially accounting wardens, that the prompt payment of these pension assessments is not a voluntary matter, nor a matter over which the Commission has any control. The premiums are assessed by the Church Pension Fund on the Authority of the General Convention, and the Commission is bound by our Diocesan Canon to collect and forward them to the Pension Fund according to rule as to time. The rule is that they must be paid quarterly in advance and interest is charged on delayed payments. Every now and again the Commission is asked to release a parish from its obligation, or to postpone payment, or to remit interest. The Commission has no jurisdiction, and the assessments must be paid when due, as is the case with all other insurance premiums.

II. Clerical Salaries

1. During the year 1925 the Commission, through the Sustentation Fund, has paid part of the salaries of the rectors of eighteen parishes. The grants have varied from as little as $83.34 a year to as much as $800.00 a year. Only one was as small as the former figure and only three as large as the latter. The Pension Assessments were paid, and the total cost to the Diocese was a little under Eleven Thousand Dollars. It is fair and interesting to point out that while these parishes are receiving considerable aid from the Diocese, they are not unmindful or ungenerous in the matter of their obligations to the Diocesan and General Work of the Church. All of the eighteen aided parishes made contributions through the Quota system to the Missionary work of the Church. They gave $4,117.96. In addition to that amount seventeen of them contributed through the Church School Lenten Offering a total of $1,650.80, or a grand total for Missionary purposes of $5,768.76, a little more than half of the amount those parishes received towards the rectors' salaries.

2. At the last Diocesan Convention the Commission was directed to increase the minimum for those clergymen who had been in Orders eight years or more, making the minimum for that class $2,100.00 and Rectory, instead of $2,000.00 and Rectory. At that time we estimated that it might cost the Sustentation Fund Three Thousand Dollars to make this increase. As a matter of fact, so large a number of the parishes assumed the extra hundred dollars that the increase in cost for the Sustentation Fund will be only about a Thousand dollars, or a third of the original estimate. Again it is demonstrated that our lay people for the most part are willing and prepared to increase the remuneration of their clergy to something like a reasonable stipend. The figures are interesting. There were thirty-four rectors of parishes receiving less than Twenty-one Hundred dollars a year. Eighteen of them were already being helped by the Sustentation Fund. Fourteen of the thirty-four parishes assumed the full burden of the minimum. The remaining twenty will be helped by the Fund this year. That means two have been added to our list. But it should also be stated that some of the parishes which have been helped in the past have increased the amount they pay as salary by a Hundred dollars, so that as a matter of fact more than half of the parishes which were paying less than $2,100.00 have increased the amounts they pay by a Hundred dollars a year. The Commission will be assisting twenty parishes this year at an estimated cost of a little over Eleven Thousand Dollars. Owing to an unexpended balance from last year, the assessment for this year is $10,750.00, somewhat less than the assessment of last year, in spite of the increase in the minimum.

3. At the 1925 Convention the Commission was instructed to make a study of a possible further increase in the minimum salaries of the clergy. The suggestion was to add a new class to our scale, comprising those who had been in Priest's Orders ten years or more, and making the minimum for that class $2,400.00 and rectory. This minimum, of course, would apply alike to Rectors and Missionaries. We find that of the clergy of the Diocese who have been in Priest's Orders ten years or more, sixty-six are at present receiving less than $2,400.00 and rectory. To bring their stipends up to proposed minimum would require a total increase from all sources of $24,000.00 per annum. Of this total some Seven or Eight Thousand would have to come from the Executive Council for the Diocesan Missionaries, while the balance, Sixteen or Seventeen Thousand Dollars, would have to come from the parishes themselves and the Sustentation Fund. Undoubtedly many of the parishes are quite able to assume the full increase involved. And we have no doubt that our past experience would be duplicated in finding that parishes which have the ability will manifest the will also when the matter is put squarely and fairly up to them. But, on the other hand, a considerable number of our parishes are under some strain to meet the present minimum. Therefore the Sustentation Fund would be called upon to bear a very considerable additional burden, a much larger proportion than has been the case with our previous increases. The assessments laid upon our people for this purpose might even reach to twice the present amount.

The more we have studied and discussed the situation during the year, the more convinced we have become that the present minimum is too little, and that a minimum of $2,400.00 and rectory should most certainly be the goal of the Diocese, and not a distant one, but one we should reach in the immediate future. In spite of that conviction the Commission is not prepared to ask for the adoption of this new class and minimum at this Convention. We hesitate chiefly for this reason. There is a steadily growing conviction in the Commission that a very difficult and delicate matter will have to be faced and solved, if the Diocese is going to continue to pay considerable amounts toward the salaries of rectors of parishes. The problem, bluntly stated, is this: To find some system which will safeguard the reasonable and proper rights of rectors and parishes so aided, and at the same time assure to the Diocese an equally reasonable and proper measure of authority and control in a situation largely supported by the funds of the Diocese. As things stand now the Diocese has no authority whatever over these situations. There is a real principle involved. The Diocese which asks considerable sums from the Diocese at large is under a serious obligation to be able to give assurance to the donors that the cause is worthy and worthily prosecuted. Only in loyalty to that principle of responsibility can the Diocese demand continued confidence and generosity on the part of its people.

We can make our point clear by an illustration. Here, for example, is a small parish, able at most to pay towards the salary of its rector $1,200.00. If the new minimum is adopted, the Diocese would have to pay that parish for its rector's salary $1,200.00, that is to say, the Diocese would be paying half the salary and yet have absolutely no voice as to the work and time of the rector. It could not, for instance, claim part of that rector's time for Missionary work outside the bounds of his parish, although there might be work at its very doors crying to be done, and in spite of the fact that the work of the parish itself did not require the full time of an active and healthy man. Just how this admittedly difficult and delicate problem can best be handled, the Commission is not prepared to say. It is our hope that this report may call out discussion which shall give us some aid in formulating a fair, practical and wise plan. In the meantime we ask for authority to continue our study for further report at the next Convention.

Again we emphasize the point that our hesitancy is in no sense due to a lack of conviction that such a minimum is imperatively demanded in the interests of justice to our clergy and efficiency in their work. No members of the Commission are so insistent on this as its lay members. We are sure that a very considerable number of our parishes now paying less than $2,400.00 are quite able to do more. And we venture to urge most earnestly that this be done wherever possible and at once. In an appended resolution we refer to this matter and ask the authority of the Convention to bring it directly to the attention of the proper parochial authorities.

4. There is another matter which is technically somewhat outside the immediate purview of the Commission. But inasmuch as it is certainly part of the whole problem of Clerical Salaries, we venture to refer to it. We are impressed with the fact that there are parishes in the Diocese which are at present paying even more than $2,400.00 and rectory, but where the demands of the parish and the position the rector is obliged to maintain are such that the salary is wholly inadequate. We are convinced that there are more than a few cases where the demands of his position, the scale of living practically required by his parish, make it almost impossible for the rector to be free from excessive financial anxiety on a salary of Three or even Four Thousand Dollars a year. The Commission assumes the responsibility of recommending to the vestries of such parishes that they seriously consider whether they are really paying their rectors salaries that enable them to maintain, with reasonable freedom from financial embarrassment, the position demanded of them by the parish. And here again it is a quite practical matter. As in every other profession or work, the happiness and efficiency of the parish priest in his service is largely conditioned by relief from the constant, nagging, gnawing worry of an income that does not provide adequately for the necessities of life in the position the Church has placed him.

The Commission offers the following resolutions:

Resolved: That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess the parishes and missions of the Diocese in a sum not exceeding $20,000.00 for the purpose of the Sustentation Fund for 1927.

Resolved: That the Commission be instructed to continue its study of the matter of recommending a minimum of $2,400.00 and rectory for clergymen who have been in Priest's Orders ten years or more, and report at the next Convention.

Resolved: That the Convention earnestly commends to the vestries of the parishes of the Diocese that part of this report of the Commission bearing on increased salaries for the clergy, and especially urges upon those parishes paying less than $2,400.00 and rectory a serious effort to bring the salary up to that minimum. And Further: That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be instructed to bring this resolution directly to the attention of the proper parochial authorities.

APPENDIX O

Report of the Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf

It is surprising how little is known of the work which the Church performs among deaf mutes. It is in the truest sense a missionary undertaking; and yet there are many who, though well informed regarding General Missions, have never heard of All Souls' Church for the Deaf right here in our own Diocese, the largest of its kind in the world. Similar churches exist in New York City, in Chicago, and in several cities of Great Britain and Canada.

The first deaf congregation was formed here in Philadelphia over sixty years ago and has progressed steadily ever since, until today All Souls' Church has 283 active communicants, and reaches many other deaf mutes not nominally churchmen. Attendance at the Easter service alone was 275.

Practically every Province of the Church now has at least one ordained missionary to the deaf. No other church has so completely organized its work of reaching this peculiarly unfortunate class of people. There are eighteen deaf missionaries in the United States today, and they all regard All Souls' Church as the ideal to be attained in their own particular localities.

Financially, the work at All Souls' this year was the best in its history. This was because various parish organizations combined in an endeavor to finish the uncompleted basement of the parish house. They were completely successful, and raised the sum of $2147.36 for the purpose. As a result, the parish house now has a splendid basketball floor and club room in the basement.

The Commission has built a substantial brick shed to the rectory which adjoins All Souls'. This shed replaces a former wooden porch, which collapsed through decay, and provides much-needed space for laundry tubs, etc., which were duly installed.

The parish house continues to find favor among the deaf as a place for social gatherings. A careful count was made during the year of attendance at such meetings and the total thus obtained reached the surprising figure of 15,200. And this is in spite of the fact that there are at least four other places in the city which are offering inducements to the deaf to secure attendance, and to further their own particular purposes.

It is with much sorrow that the Commission reports the death of one of its most able members, Dr. A. L. E. Crouter, who died suddenly on June 26, 1925, after a long life spent in the service of the deaf as a teacher, benefactor and friend. He served for many years as a member of the Commission, and was ever keenly alive to all matters affecting the welfare of the deaf, whom he loved with a singular devotion. He was a teacher of the deaf for over sixty years, and at the time of his death was the head of the great Mt. Airy School. His decease constitutes an irreparable loss.

It may not be generally known that All Souls' Church constitutes a kind of headquarters for extensive missionary work among the deaf in the dioceses of New Jersey and Delaware. The missionary, the Rev. Warren M. Smaltz, gives regular services to the deaf in both Trenton and Wilmington, while occasional services are given in other localities in those dioceses. Nearly two hundred deaf communicants are thus served, in addition to those who attend All Souls' Church.

Like other churches and missions All Souls' Church has its needs. A garage and suitable drive-way to the street are urgently needed and there is space available. The missionary has to cover three dioceses in his work, so that an automobile is an actual necessity. Thus he has been summoned for a baptism in extremis to so far away a place as Milford, Del., and to officiate at a burial in Cape May, N. J. An automobile makes possible more intensive work over a very large field of labor.

Another desirable improvement, but one not so urgently needed, is a more adequate heating plant in the rectory. The present heating plant is of the hot air type, and though it has been repeatedly overhauled, it fails to function satisfactorily. Possibly a new system can eventually be installed, which can be connected with the plant in the church adjoining.

And lastly, a good projecting machine for motion pictures would be a most desirable addition to the Mission's equipment. It may be difficult for the average individual to realize how completely the deaf are dependent upon their sight alone, and how grateful any means of visual instruction and enjoyment is to them. It is becoming more and more easy to secure the loan of excellent films, but at present we lack the means for projecting them upon a screen. A gift of a good machine would prove as grateful to the deaf as a good pipe organ would be to the average hearing congregation. It is earnestly hoped that this needed equipment will be forthcoming.

APPENDIX P

Communication from the General Convention

To the Ecclesiastical Authorities of the Church and to the Diocesan Secretaries

In compliance with the requirements of Canon 51 §I. (iv.) notice is hereby given "to the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Church in every Diocese and Missionary District, as well as to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese that the following Alterations of the Book of Common Prayer," and the following amendments to the Constitution, as were proposed in the Convention of 1925, are to be finally acted upon in the General Convention of 1928, in accordance with Articles IX and X of the Constitution.

Furthermore, each Diocesan Secretary is hereby notified that it is his duty to make known such proposed alterations of the Book of Common Prayer, and of the Constitution, to the Convention of his Diocese at its next meeting and to certify to the Secretary of the House of Deputies that such action has been taken by him.

CARROLL M. DAVIS,
Secretary of the House of Deputies.

Church Missions House,
New York,
December 22, 1925.

AMENDMENTS TO THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER PROPOSED AT THE CONVENTION OF 1925, AND TO BE FINALLY ACTED UPON AT THE CONVENTION OF 1928

I. ARRANGEMENT

Resolved: That the following change be made in the arrangement of the Book of Common Prayer, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.*

(1) Transfer:

a. The Prayers and Thanksgivings to follow Evening Prayer.
b. The Litany to follow the Prayers and Thanksgivings.
c. The Holy Communion to follow the Litany and Penitential Office.
d. The Collects, Epistles, and Gospels to follow The Holy Communion.
e. The Penitential Office to a place immediately after the Litany.

(2) Distribute the constituent parts of the Service for Thanksgiving Day as follows:

a. Transfer the opening Sentences to follow immediately after the Sentences of Scripture for Trinity Sunday at Morning Prayer, and indent Thanksgiving Day.
b. Transfer the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel to a place among The Collects, Epistles, and Gospels, as specified later in this Report, and prefix to them the title, Thanksgiving Day.
c. Transfer the Anthem to be used instead of the Venite, with its rubric, to precede the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel.
d. Strike out the second rubric on page 320, "The First Lesson shall be," etc., and insert the Lessons in the Table of Proper Lessons for Holy-days, immediately after All Saints.
e. Transfer the Thanksgiving Prayer to Thanksgivings, and insert it as the first of the Thanksgivings, omitting the rubric which precedes it, and prefixing this title, 'A Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the Fruits of the Earth and all the other Blessings of his merciful Providence.

(3) Amend Directions entitled Concerning the Service of the Church, page, vii., so as to read as follows:

The Order for Holy Communion, the Order for Morning Prayer, the Order for Evening Prayer, and the Litany, as set forth in this Book, are the regular Services appointed for Public Worship in this Church, and shall be used accordingly; Provided, that in addition to these Services the Minister, in his discretion, subject to the direction of the Ordinary, may use other devotions taken from this Book or set forth by lawful authority within this Church or from Holy Scripture; and

* The resolution is printed once for the sake of brevity, but is understood to be repeated before each item.

Provided further, that, subject to the direction of the Ordinary, in Mission Churches or Chapels, and when expressly authorized by the Ordinary in Cathedral or Parish Churches or other places, such other devotions as aforesaid may be used, when the edification of the Congregation so requires, in place of the Order for Morning Prayer or the Order for Evening Prayer.

For Days of Fasting and Thanksgiving appointed by the Civil or Ecclesiastical Authority, and for other special occasions for which no Service or Prayer hath been provided in this Book, the Bishop may set forth such form or forms as he shall see fit, in which case none other shall be used.

Note: That in the directions for the several Services in this Book it is not intended by the use of any particular word denoting vocal utterance to prescribe the tone or manner of their recitation.

(4) Amend the directions entitled The Order how the rest of the Holy Scripture is appointed to be read, page viii., by inserting in the last paragraph thereof after the words "Charitable Collections" the words "and on other special occasions," and omitting the word "and" before "on occasions," in the second line.

(5) Substitute for the Lessons contained in the Calendar those Lessons which shall be adopted by General Convention.

(7) Amend the Table of Fasts, as follows:

a. Omit III. Rogation Days.

b. Number IV accordingly as III and make it read:

III. All the Fridays in the Year, except Christmas Day, and The Epiphany, or any Friday which may intervene between these Feasts.

c. Add a new sub-heading at the end of Table of Fasts, as follows:

DAYS OF SOLEMN SUPPLICATION

The three Rogation Days, being the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday before Holy Thursday, or the Ascension of our Lord.

(8) After the directions entitled Tables and Rules for the Movable and Immovable Feasts, page xxiv., following the direction for the observance of Thanksgiving Day, insert the following:

TABLES OF PRECEDENCE

The Holy Days following have precedence of any other Sunday or Holy Day:

The Sundays in Advent Christmas Day
The Epiphany
Septuagesima, Sexagesima, Quinquagesima } Sundays
Ash-Wednesday
The Sundays in Lent
All the days of Holy Week
Easter-day; and the seven following days

Rogation Sunday
The Ascension Day; and the Sunday after Ascension Day
Whitsunday; and the six following days
Trinity Sunday

If any other Holy Day fall on any day noted in the preceding Table, the observance of such Holy Day shall be transferred to the first convenient open day.

The following Holy Days have precedence of days not noted in the foregoing Table:

St. Stephen, Deacon and Martyr
St. John, Apostle and Evangelist
The Holy Innocents
The Circumcision of Christ
The Conversion of St. Paul
The Purification of St. Mary the Virgin
St. John Baptist
All Feasts of Apostles or Evangelists
The Transfiguration of Christ
St. Michael and All Angels
All Saints

On these Holy Days the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel for the Feast shall be used; but on Sundays the Collect for the Feast shall be followed by the Collect for the Sunday.

(9) Prefix to each of the five Principal Parts into which the Public Services contained in the Prayer Book are divided, a separate Title-page as follows:

a. Immediately to precede the Order for Daily Morning Prayer:

MORNING AND EVENING PRAYER
together with
PRAYERS AND THANKSGIVINGS
THE LITANY
A PENITENTIAL OFFICE

b. Immediately to follow The Litany and Penitential Office

THE HOLY COMMUNION
together with
THE COLLECTS, EPISTLES, AND GOSPELS

c. Immediately to follow The Collects, Epistles, and Gospels:

HOLY BAPTISM
together with
The Offices of Instruction
The Order of Confirmation
The Solemnization of Matrimony
The Thanksgiving after Childbirth
The Visitation of the Sick
The Communion of the Sick
The Burial of the Dead

d. Immediately to follow the Burial of the Dead:

THE PSALTER

II. MORNING PRAYER

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Order for Daily Morning Prayer, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Revise the rubrics in Morning Prayer in the following particulars, viz.:

a. Delete the second rubric.

b. Amend the third rubric to read as follows:

¶On any day, save a day of Fasting or Abstinence, or on any day when the Litany or Holy Communion is immediately to follow, the Minister may, at his discretion, pass at once from the Sentences to the Lord's Prayer, first pronouncing, The Lord be with you. Answer. And with thy spirit. Minister. Let us pray.

¶And Note, that when the Confession and Absolution are omitted, the Minister may, after the Sentences, pass to the Versicles, O Lord, open thou our lips, etc., in which case the Lord's Prayer shall be said with the other prayers, immediately after The Lord be with you, etc., and before the Versicles and Responses which follow, or, in the Litany, as there appointed.

c. Delete the fourth rubric.

d. Insert after the Exhortation, Dearly beloved, etc., a rubric and Exhortation as follows, viz.:

¶Or he shall say.

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

e. Add at the end of the rubric following the Third Collect, after the words "think fit," the words "or with the Grace."

(2) Amend the directions before the Venite as follows:
a. In the first rubric substitute for the words "Anthem" and "Anthems," the words "Canticle" and "Canticles."
b. In the second rubric substitute for the word "here" the words "immediately before the Venite."
c. Add the second "Alleluia" at the end of the Christmas Invitatory.
d. Add in the Purification Invitatory, after the word "flesh," the words "and dwelt among us."

III. EVENING PRAYER

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Order for Daily Evening Prayer; and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

After the second rubric on page 22, insert the following:

But note that the Minister at his discretion may omit one of the Lessons in Evening Prayer, the Lesson read being followed by one of the Evening Canticles.

IV. PRAYERS AND THANKSGIVINGS

Resolved: That the following change be made in Prayers and Thanksgivings, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Substitute for the rubric before the Prayers and Thanksgivings the following:

¶To be used before the Prayer for all Conditions of Men, or, when that is not said, before the final Prayer of Thanksgiving or of Blessing, or before the Grace.

(2) Omit the title For Unity before the first of the Collects which follow Prayers and Thanksgivings.

(3) Insert after the Prayer for Every Man in his Work, the following:

For the Family of Nations

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, guide, we beseech thee, the Nations of the world into the way of justice and truth, and establish among them that peace which is the fruit of righteousness that they may become the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

V. THE LITANY

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Litany, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Print in capital letters the first word of each section of the Litany.

(2) Substitute for the rubric on page 30 the rubric following:

¶To be used after the Third Collect at Morning or Evening Prayer; or before the Holy Communion; or separately.

(3) Substitute for the four opening invocations of the Litany, the following:

O God the Father, Creator of heaven and earth:
Have mercy upon us.
O God the Son, Redeemer of the world;

Have mercy upon us.
O God the Holy Ghost, Sanctifier of the faithful;
Have mercy upon us.
O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, one God;
Have mercy upon us.

(4) In the second suffrage, page 31, insert after "tempest" the words "from earthquake, fire and flood."

(5) Insert before the suffrage for Rulers and Magistrates a new suffrage, viz.:

That it may please thee so to rule the heart of thy servant, The President of the United States, that he may above all things seek thy honour and glory;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

(6) Make the suffrage beginning at bottom of page 32 of Prayer Book, to read:

That it may please thee to preserve all who travel by land, by water or by air, all women in the perils of childbirth, etc.

(7) Transfer the rubric on page 33 to a place immediately after the Lord's Prayer on page 34.

(8) Insert response Amen after prayer, "O God, Merciful Father," page 34.

(9) Insert Minister and People before antiphon, "O Lord, arise," etc., in both places, pages 34 and 35, and Minister before Psalm, "O God, we have heard," etc.

(10) Omit the General Thanksgiving, the Prayer of St. Chrysostom, and 2 Cor. xiii. 14, and insert after prayer, "We humbly beseech thee," a rubric as follows:

¶The Minister may end the Litany here, or at his discretion add other Prayers from this Book.

VI. THE COLLECTS, EPISTLES, AND GOSPELS

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Collects, Epistles, and Gospels to be used throughout the year; and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) That beginning with each season, there be printed as a heading the name of the season, and that a space or printer's symbol be placed between the seasons, to set them apart.

(2) That the day and month of every immovable Feast be printed after the title and also at the top of the page.

(3) That in the titles of certain Holy Days or seasons the hyphens be omitted, and the second word of the title printed with a capital, as follows:

Christmas Day	Easter Week
Ash Wednesday	The Ascension Day
Easter Even	Whitsun Week
Easter Day	Trinity Sunday

(4) That there be substituted for the titles of certain Saints' Days new titles, as follows:

St. Andrew the Apostle for St. Andrews' Day
St. Stephen, Deacon and Martyr for St. Stephen's Day
St. John, Apostle and Evangelist for St. John the Evangelist's Day
The Holy Innocents for Innocents' Day
St. Matthias the Apostle for St. Matthias' Day
St. Mary the Evangelist for St. Mark's Day
St. Philip and St. James, Apostles for St. Philip and St. James' Day
St. John Baptist for St. John Baptist's Day
St. Peter the Apostle for St. Peter's Day
St. Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist for St. Matthew the Apostle

(5) That the rubric after the Collect for the First Sunday in Advent, page 52, be amended to read:

¶This Collect is to be repeated every day, after the other Collects in Advent, until Christmas Day.

(6) That in the Collect for the Fourth Sunday in Advent, there be substituted for the words at the end, "the satisfaction of thy Son, our Lord," the words "Jesus Christ our Lord."

(7) That the following rubric be placed after the first Collect for the Nativity, page 58:

¶This Collect is to be said daily throughout the Octave.

(8) That the rubric after the Collect for Saint Stephen's Day, page 62, be omitted.

(9) That in the Collect for Saint John the Evangelist's Day, page 63, in the third line, the word "illumined" be substituted for the word "instructed," and that the sixth line read, "at length attain to life everlasting; through."

(11) That the title "The Sunday after Christmas-day" be changed, pages 66 and 67, to "The First Sunday after Christmas Day."

(12) That the following rubric be inserted after the Collect for the Epiphany, page 69:

¶This Collect is to be said daily throughout the Octave.

(13) That in the place of the Gospel for the Second Sunday after the Epiphany, page 74 of the Prayer Book, there be substituted as follows:

The Gospel. St. Mark i. 1

The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee; The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight; John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem; and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins. And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey. And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost. And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan. And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him: And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

(14) That the Gospel for the Second Sunday after the Epiphany be made the Gospel for the Third Sunday; that the Gospel for the Third Sunday be made the Gospel for the Fourth Sunday; and that the Gospel for the Fourth Sunday be omitted.

(15) That the rubric after the Collect for Ash Wednesday, page 86, be amended so as to read as follows:

¶This Collect is to be said every day in Lent, after the Collect appointed for the day, until Palm Sunday.

(16) That the title of the Fifth Sunday in Lent, page 94, read, The Fifth Sunday in Lent, commonly called Passion Sunday.

(17) That the title of the Sixth Sunday in Lent, page 96, read, The Sunday next before Easter, commonly called Palm Sunday.

(19) That the following rubric be placed after the Collect for Palm Sunday, page 96:

¶This Collect is to be said every day, after the Collect appointed for the day, until Good Friday.

(20) That the following Collects be inserted in the proper places for the days of Holy Week:

MONDAY BEFORE EASTER

The Collect

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified; Mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TUESDAY BEFORE EASTER

The Collect

O Lord God, whose blessed Son, our Saviour, gave his back to the smiters and hid not his face from shame; Grant us grace to take joyfully the sufferings of the present time, in full assurance of the glory that shall be revealed; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

WEDNESDAY BEFORE EASTER

The Collect

Assist us mercifully with thy help, O Lord God of our salvation; that we may enter with joy upon the meditation of those mighty acts whereby thou hast given unto us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THURSDAY BEFORE EASTER

Commonly called Maundy Thursday

The Collect

Almighty Father, whose dear Son, on the night before he suffered, did institute the Sacrament of his Body and Blood; Mercifully grant that we may thankfully receive it in remembrance of him, who liveth and reigneth with three and the Holy Spirit ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

Add as an alternative Gospel for the Thursday before Easter (preceded by rubric "or this") St. John 13:1-15.

(21) That the rubric on page 125, Easter Day, providing certain Anthems in place of the Venite, be amended to read as follows:

¶At Morning Prayer, instead of the Canticle O come, let us sing, etc., the following shall be said, and may be said throughout the Octave.

(21) a. That the following rubric be placed after the first Collect for Easter Day, page 126 of the Prayer Book:

This Collect is to be said daily throughout Easter week.

(22) That there be substituted for the Collects for Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week, respectively, the following:

MONDAY IN EASTER WEEK

The Collect

O God, whose blessed Son did manifest himself to his disciples in the breaking of bread; Open, we pray thee, the eyes of our faith, that we may behold thee in all thy works; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TUESDAY IN EASTER WEEK

The Collect

Grant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that we who celebrate with reverence the Paschal feast, may be found worthy to attain to everlasting joys; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(23) That the title of the Fifth Sunday after Easter, page 138, read, the Fifth Sunday after Easter, commonly called Rogation Sunday.

(24) That the title "Sunday after Ascension Day" be changed to "The Sunday after Ascension Day."

(25) That the title at the top of page 143 of the Prayer Book be changed to read "Pentecost, commonly called Whitsunday."

(26) That there be provided a second Collect, Epistle and Gospel for Whitsunday, with rubric, as follows:

(To be printed after the Collect, Epistle and Gospel now in the Prayer Book.)

¶If in any Church the Holy Communion be twice celebrated on Whitsunday, the following Collect, Epistle, and Gospel may be used at the first Communion.

The Collect

Almighty and most merciful God, grant, we beseech thee, that by the indwelling of thy Holy Spirit, we may be enlightened and strengthened for thy service; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the same Spirit ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle. I. Cor. xii. 4

Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh the one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many.

The Gospel. St. Luke xi. 9

Jesus said to his disciples, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children; how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

(27) That there be substituted for the Collects for Monday and Tuesday in Whitsun Week respectively the following:

MONDAY IN WHITSUN WEEK

The Collect

Send, we beseech thee, Almighty God, thy Holy Spirit into our hearts, that he may direct and rule us according to thy will, comfort us in all our afflictions, defend us from all error, and lead us into all truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the same Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth one God world without end. Amen.

TUESDAY IN WHITSUN WEEK

The Collect

Grant, we beseech thee, merciful God, that thy Church, being gathered together in unity by thy Holy Spirit, may manifest thy power among all peoples, to the glory of thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

(29) That the Parable of the Prodigal Son, Luke 15:11-32, "Jesus said, A Certain man," etc., be substituted for the present Gospel for the Ninth Sunday after Trinity.

(30) That following the Gospel for the Twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity, page 186, the following rubric be inserted:

¶If in any year there be twenty-six Sundays after Trinity, the service for the Sixth Sunday after the Epiphany shall be used on the Twenty-fifth Sunday. If there be twenty-seven, the service for the Sixth Sunday after the Epiphany shall be used on the Twenty-sixth, and the service for the Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany on the Twenty-fifth. If there be fewer than twenty-five Sundays, the overplus shall be omitted.

(31) That the rubric on page 188 of the Prayer Book be omitted.

(34) That the following Collect for St. Luke the Evangelist, be substituted for that now in Prayer Book:—

Almighty God, who didst inspire thy servant Saint Luke the Physician, to set forth in the Gospel the love and healing power of thy Son; Manifest in thy Church the same power and love, to the healing of our bodies and our souls; through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(35) That a Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided for A Saint's Day, as follows, to be placed after the Gospel for All Saints' Day.

A SAINT'S DAY

The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, who dost enkindle the flame of thy love in the hearts of the saints; Grant to us thy humble servants the same faith and power of love, that, as we rejoice in their triumphs, we may profit by their examples; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or this

O Almighty God, who hast called us to faith in thee and hast compassed us about with so great a cloud of witnesses; Grant that we, encouraged by the good examples of thy saints, and especially of thy servant [————————], Saint, may persevere in running the race that is set before us, until at length, through thy mercy, we, with them, attain to thine eternal joy; through him who is the author and finisher of our faith, thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Heb. xii. 1

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Gospel. St. Matt. xxv. 31

When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory; and before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats; and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: for I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

(36) That a Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided for the Feast of the Dedication of a Church, as follows, to be placed after the Gospel for a Saint's Day.

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF A CHURCH

The Collect

O God, whom year by year we praise for the dedication of this church; Hear, we beseech thee, the prayers of thy people, and grant that whosoever shall worship before thee in this place, may obtain thy merciful aid and protection; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. I Peter ii. 1

Therefore laying aside all malice, and all guide, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speaking, as newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: if so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

The Gospel. St. Matt. xxi. 12

Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves, and said unto them, it is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves. And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them. And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased, and said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

(37) That a Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided for the Rogation Days, as follows, to be placed after the Gospel for Ember Days.

ROGATION DAYS

The Collect

Almighty God, Lord of heaven and earth; We beseech thee to pour forth thy blessing upon this land to give us a fruitful season; that we, constantly receiving thy bounty, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Ezek. xxxiv. 25

And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing. And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them. And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely and none shall make them afraid. And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more. Thus shall they know that I the Lord their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord God. And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

The Gospel. St. Luke xi. 5

Jesus said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves; for a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him; and he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee? I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. And I say unto you, Ask and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children; how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

(38) That a Collect, Epistle, and Gospel be provided for Independence Day, July Fourth, as follows, to follow the Gospel for the Rogation Days.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

July Fourth

The Collect

O Eternal God, through whose mighty power our fathers won their liberties of old; Grant, we beseech thee, that we and all the people of this land may have grace to maintain these liberties in righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Deut. x. 17

The Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward: he doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment. Love ye therefore the stranger; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name. He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things which thine eyes have seen.

The Gospel. St. Matt. v. 43

Jesus said, Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

(39) That the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel for Thanksgiving Day, with their proper headings, be here inserted to follow the Gospel for Independence Day.

(40) That a Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, as follows, be provided for use at the Burial of the Dead, to follow the Gospel for the Solemnization of Matrimony.

THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD

The Collect

O Eternal Lord God, who holdest all souls in life; Vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to thy whole Church in paradise and on earth, thy light and thy peace; and grant that we, following the good examples of those who have served thee here and are now at rest, may at the last enter with them into thine unending joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or this

O God, whose mercies cannot be numbered; Accept our prayers on behalf of the soul of thy servant departed, and grant him an entrance into the land of light and joy in the fellowship of thy saints; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. I. Thess. iv. 13

I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with them. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

The Gospel. St. John vi. 37

Jesus said unto his disciples, All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

(41) That the following changes be made in the text of the Epistles and Gospels of the Church Year, viz.:—

a. That in the Epistle for the Third Sunday in Advent the word "by" before "myself" (line 7) be changed to "against."

b. That in the Epistle for the Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany, page 76, in the sixth line, for the word "damnation" there be substituted the word "condemnation."

b. 1. That in the Epistle for the Fifth Sunday after Epiphany the words "bowels of mercies" be changed to "heart of compassion."

c. That the Epistle for the Thursday before Easter, pages 114 and 115, begin with the words "I have received" and close with the words "till he come", and the verse named at the beginning to be changed from 17 to 23.

d. That the first Epistle for Easter Day, page 126, shall close with the words "with him in glory."

e. That in the Epistle for the First Sunday after Easter, page 133 of the Prayer Book, the words of the sentence in lines 9 to 11, beginning, "For there are three," etc., be omitted, and that in the next sentence, the first word "And" be changed to "For',' and the words "in earth" be omitted.

f. That in the Gospel for the Second Sunday after Easter, the sentence beginning in the eighth line read:—"I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep." Also, that in the last line the word "fold" be changed to "flock."

g. That in the place of the Gospel for Ascension Day, page 141 of the Prayer Book, there be substituted the passage, Luke 24:49-53, as follows:—

The Gospel. St. Luke xxiv. 49

Jesus said, Behold I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high. And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy: and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God.

h. That in the Epistle for Trinity Sunday, the words "living creatures" be substituted for beasts in the three places where the word "beasts" occurs and that after the word first, second, third and fourth, the word beast be omitted.

i. That in the Epistle for the Eighth Sunday after Trinity, ninth line, the word "itself" be changed to "himself," so that it shall read:—"The Spirit himself beareth witness."

i. 1. That in the Gospel for the Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity the word "rooms" in line 15 be changed to "seats" and the word "room" in line 17 be changed to "seat" and thereafter the word "room" be changed to "place."

j. That in the Epistle for the Twenty-third Sunday after Trinity, page 184 of the Prayer Book, lines 10 to 12, there be substituted for the present reading, the following:—
"Who shall change the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed unto the body of his glory." Also that in line 8, for the word "conversation" there be substituted the word citizenship, and in line 13, for the word "subdue" there be substituted the word subject.

k. That in place of the Epistle for St. Thomas the Apostle, page 190 of the Prayer Book, there be inserted the following:—
Heb. 10:35 and part of Chap. XI.

The Epistle. Heb. x. 35

Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry. Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

m. That in place of the Epistle for St. Simon and St. Jude, Apostles, page 217 of the Prayer Book, there be inserted the present Epistle for St. Thomas the Apostle, as follows:

The Epistle. Eph. ii. 19

Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth into an holy temple in the Lord: in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

n. That the Epistle for All Saints' Day be changed from Rev. 7.2-12, to Rev. 7.2-4 and 9-17, so that it shall read:—

For the Epistle. Rev. vii. 2

And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

And one of the elders answered, saying unto me. What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said unto me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb: Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

o. That in the place of the Gospel for Thanksgiving Day page 323 of the Prayer Book, there be substituted the passage St. Matt. 6:25 to the words "the evil thereof" using the marginal readings, and adding as a preface "Jesus said."

p. That the translation of the Gospel for the Fifteen Sunday after Trinity, beginning with St. Matthew 6:24 be changed to that of the American Revised Version and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Consttiution.

VII. THE ORDER FOR THE HOLY COMMUNION

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Order for the Administration of the Lord's Supper; and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) In the Bidding before the Prayer for the Church, delete the word "Militant."

(2) In the rubric before the Prayer of Consecration substitute for the word "Table" the words "Holy Table."

(3) Amend the Prayer for Christ's Church Militant, by removing from the square brackets all but words "alms and," by the omission of the side rubric, and by breaking the prayer into paragraphs:

(a) "Almighty and everlasting God, Who ....."
(b) "We beseech thee also, ..."
(c) "Give Grace O Heavenly Father, ..."
(d) "And to all thy people, ..."
(e) "And we most humbly beseech thee, ..."
(f) "And we also bless thy holy name, ..."

(4) In the last petition of the Prayer for Christ's Church Militant insert after the words "beseeching Thee" the words "to grant them continual growth in thy love and service and."

(5) After the Sanctus (page 232 Prayer Book) add the following rubric and anthem:

Here may be said:

Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord;
Hosanna in the highest.

(6) Insert a new rubric at the end of the Communion Office as follows:

Any Bishop may, under proper conditions, authorize the administration of the Holy Communion by intinction, in which case both sentences of administration shall be said.

(7) Substitute for the word "Apostles" in the proper preface for Whitsunday, the word "Disciples."

VIII. HOLY BAPTISM

Resolved: That the following Office be substituted for the three Offices now standing in the Book of Common Prayer (pages 244-265) and that the proposed change be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

The Ministration of

HOLY BAPTISM

¶The Minister of every parish shall often admonish the people that they defer not the baptism of their children, and that it is most convenient that Baptism should be administered upon Sundays and other Holy Days. Nevertheless (if necessity so require), Baptism may be administered upon any other day. And also he shall warn them that except for urgent cause they seek not to have their Children baptized in their houses.

¶There shall be for every Male-child to be baptized, when they can be had, two Godfathers and one Godmother; and for every Female, one Godfather and two Godmothers; and Parents shall be admitted to Sponsors, if it be desired.

¶When there are children to be baptized, the Parents or Sponsors shall give knowledge thereof to the Minister. And then the Godfathers and Godmothers, and the People with the Children, must be ready at the Font, either immediately after the Second Lesson at Morning or Evening Prayer, or at such other time as the Minister shall appoint.

¶When any such Persons as are of riper years are to be baptized, timely notice shall be given to the Minister; that so due care may be taken for their examination, whether they are sufficiently instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion; and that they may be exhorted to prepare themselves, with Prayers and Fasting, for the receiving of this holy Sacrament.

¶And Note that at the time of the Baptism of an Adult, there shall be present with him at the Font at least two Witnesses.

¶And the Minister having come to the Font, which is then to be filled with pure water, shall say as follows, the people all standing.

Hath this child (or person) been already baptized, or no?

¶If they answer, No; then shall the Minister proceed as followeth:

Dearly beloved, forasmuch as our Saviour Christ saith, None can enter into the Kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and born anew of Water and of the Holy Ghost; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous mercy he will grant to this Child (or Person) that which by nature he cannot have; that he may be baptized with Water and the Holy Ghost, and received into Christ's holy Church, and be made a living member of the same.

¶Then shall the Minister say,

Let us pray.

Almighty and immortal God, the aid of all who need, the helper of all who flee to thee for succour, the life of those who believe, and the resurrection of the dead; We call upon thee for this Child (or this thy Servant), that he, coming to thy holy Baptism, may receive remission of sin, by spiritual regeneration. Receive him, O Lord, as thou hast promised by the well-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall have; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. So give now unto us who ask; let us who seek, find; open the gate unto us who knock; that this Child (or this thy Servant) may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Then the Minister shall say as followeth:

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by St. Mark, in the tenth Chapter, at the thirteenth Verse.

They brought young children to Christ, that he should touch them. and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

¶Or this

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by St. John in the third Chapter, at the first Verse.

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

¶Or this

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by St. Matthew in the twenty-eighth Chapter, at the eighteenth Verse.

Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

¶Then shall the Minister say:

And now being persuaded of the good will of our heavenly Father toward this Child (or Person) declared by his Son Jesus Christ; let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto him, and say, Almighty and everlasting God, heavenly Father, We give thee humble thanks, That thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the Knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee; Increase this knowledge, And confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to this Child (or this thy Servant), That he may be born again, And be made an heir of everlasting salvation; Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, Now and for ever. Amen.

¶When the office is used for Children the Minister shall speak unto the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wise:

Dearly beloved, ye have brought this Child here to be baptized; ye have prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive him, to release him from sin, to sanctify him with the Holy Ghost, to give him the kingdom of heaven, and everlasting life.

Dost thou, therefore, in the name of this Child, renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the sinful desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Answer. I renounce them all; and, by God's help, will endeavour not to follow, nor be led by them.

Minister. Dost thou believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith, as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

Answer. I do.

Minister. Wilt thou be baptized in this Faith?

Answer. That is my desire.

Minister. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Answer. I will, by God's help.

Minister. Having now, in the name of this Child, made these promises, will ye also on your part take heed that he learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health?

Answer. I will, by God's help.

Minister. Will ye take heed that this Child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he is sufficiently instructed?

Answer. I will, God being my helper.

¶When the Office is used for Adults the Minister shall address them on this wise, the persons to be baptized answering the questions for themselves:

Well beloved, ye have come hither desiring to receive Holy Baptism. We have prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive you, to release you from sin, to sanctify you with the Holy Ghost, to give you the Kingdom of Heaven and everlasting life.

Dost thou then renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the sinful desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Answer. I renounce them all; and, by God's help, will endeavour not to follow, nor be led by them.

Minister. Dost thou believe in Jesus the Christ, the Son of the Living God?

Answer. I do.

Minister. Dost thou accept him and desire to follow him as thy Saviour and Lord?

Answer. I do.

Minister. Dost thou believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith, as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

Answer. I do.

Minister. Wilt thou be baptized in this Faith?

Answer. That is my desire.

Minister. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Answer. I will, by God's help.

¶Then shall the Minister say:

O merciful God, grant that like as Christ died and rose again, so this Child (or this thy Servant) may with him die to sin and rise to newness of life. Amen.

Grant that all sinful affections may die in him, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in him. Amen.

Grant that he may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph, against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that whosoever is here dedicated to thee by our office and ministry, may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live, and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

Minister. The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirit.

Minister. Lift up your hearts.

Answer. We lift them up unto the Lord.

Minister. Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

Answer. It is meet and right to do so.

Minister. It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty that we should give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God, for that thy dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood; and gave commandment to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; Regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy congregation; sanctify this Water to the mystical washing away of sin; and grant that this Child (or this thy Servant) now to be baptized therein may receive the fulness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be all honour and glory now and evermore. Amen.

¶Then the Minister shall take the Child into his arms, and shall say to the Godfathers and Godmothers:

Name this Child.

And then, naming the child after them, he shall dip him in the Water discreetly, or shall pour Water upon him saying:

N. I baptize thee In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶If the Person to be baptized is an Adult, the Minister shall take him by the hand, and shall ask the witnesses the Name; and then shall dip him in the water, or pour water upon him, using the same form of words.

¶Then the Minister shall say,

We receive this Child (or Person) into the congregation of Christ's flock; and do * sign him with the sign of the Cross, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner, against sin, the world, and the devil; and to continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end. Amen.

¶Then shall the Minister say,

Seeing now, dearly beloved brethren, that this Child (or this Person) is regenerate, and grafted into the body of Christ's Church, let us give thanks unto Almighty God for these benefits; and with one accord make our prayers unto him, that this Child (or this Person) may lead the rest of his life according to this beginning.

¶Then shall be said,

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

¶Then shall the Minister say,

We yield thee hearty thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Child (or this thy Servant) with thy Holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own Child, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And humbly we beseech thee to grant, that he, being dead unto sin, may live unto righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his death, may also be partaker of his resurrection; so that finally, with the residue of thy holy Church, he may be an inheritor of thine everlasting kingdom; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

* Here the Minister shall make a Cross upon the Child's (or Person's) forehead,

¶Then the Minister shall add,

The Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named; Grant you to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; that Christ dwelling in your hearts by faith, ye may be filled with all the fulness of God. Amen.

¶It is expedient that every Adult, thus baptized, should be confirmed by the Bishop, so soon after his Baptism as conveniently may be; that so he may be admitted to the Holy Communion.

¶When necessity requires it, in consideration of extreme sickness, then the following form shall suffice:—

The Child (or Person) being named by some one who is present, the Minister shall pour Water upon him, saying these words:

N. I baptize thee In the Name of Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

After which shall be said the Lord's Prayer, and the Thanksgiving from the Office, beginning, We yield thee hearty thanks, etc.

¶And Note, that in the case of an Adult, the Minister shall first ask the questions provided in this office for the baptism of Adults.

¶In cases of extreme sickness or any imminent peril if a Minister cannot be procured, then any baptized person present may administer Holy Baptism, using the foregoing form. Such a baptism shall be promptly reported to the parish authorities.

¶It is expedient that a Child or Person so baptized be afterward brought to the Church, at which time these parts of the foregoing service shall be used:

The Gospel, the Questions (omitting the question "Wilt thou be baptized in this faith?" and the answer thereto), the Declaration, "We receive this Child (or Person," etc., and the remainder of the office.

¶If there be reasonable doubt whether any person were baptized with water, in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost (which are essential parts of Baptism), such person may be baptized in the manner herein appointed; saying that, at the immersion or the pouring of water, the Minister shall use this form of words:

If thou art not already baptized, N., I baptize thee In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

IX. OFFICES OF INSTRUCTION

Resolved: That the following Offices of Instruction be substituted for the Cathechism in the Book of Common Prayer, and that the Cathechism which now appears upon pages 266 to 272, be inserted immediately before Family Prayer; and that the proposed change be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

OFFICES OF INSTRUCTION

I

¶After the singing of a Hymn, shall be said by the Minister and Congregation together, all kneeling, the following prayer, the Minister first pronouncing,

Minister. The Lord be with you.
Answer. And with thy spirit.
Minister. Let us pray.

Lord of all power and might, who art the author and giver of all good things; Graft in our hearts the love of thy Name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Then, the Congregation being seated, the Minister shall ask them the Questions which follow, the Congregation reading or repeating the Answers as appointed:

Question. What is your Christian Name?
Answer. My Christian name is ————.
Question. Who gave you this name?
Answer. My Sponsors gave me this name in Baptism; wherein I was made a member of Christ, the child of God, and an inheritor of the kingdom of heaven.
Question. What did your Sponsors then promise for you?
Answer. My Sponsors did promise and vow three things in my name: First, that I should renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanity of this wicked world, and all the sinful lusts of the flesh; Secondly, that I should believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith; And Thirdly, that I should keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of life.
Question. Do you not think that you are bound so to do?
Answer. Yes, verily; and by God's help so I will. And I heartily thank our heavenly Father, that he hath called me to this state of salvation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. And I pray unto God to give me his grace, that I may continue in the same unto my life's end.
Question. You said that your Sponsors promised and vowed that you should believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith. Recite the Articles of the Christian Faith as contained in the Apostles' Creed.

¶Then, all standing, shall be said the Apostles' Creed by the Minister and the Congregation.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary: Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead and buried: He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost: The Holy Catholic Church. The Communion of Saints: The Forgiveness of sins. The Resurrection of the body. And the Life everlasting. Amen.

¶After which, the Minister, turning to the Congregation, shall ask the Question following, the Congregation responding:

Question. What do you chiefly learn in these Articles of your Belief?
Answer. First, I learn to believe in God the Father, who hath made me, and all the world;
Secondly, in God the Son, who hath redeemed me, and all mankind;

Thirdly, in God the Holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the people of God.

And this Holy Trinity, One God, I praise and magnify, saying:—

Minister and Congregation. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

¶Here may be sung a Hymn, after which the Minister, turning to the Congregation, shall say:

Question. You said that your Sponsors promised and vowed that you should keep God's holy will and commandments. Tell me how many Commandments there are.

Answer. There are Ten Commandments, given in old time by God to the people of Israel.

¶Then shall the Minister say,

Let us ask God's help to know and keep them.

Minister. The Lord be with you.
Answer. And with thy spirit.
Minister. Let us pray.

¶Then shall be said this prayer by the Minister and Congregation together, all kneeling:

O Almighty God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men; Grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Then shall the Minister repeat the Ten Commandments, and after every Commandment the Congregation shall say the appointed Prayer. But Note, That where it is so ordered, the Congregation may repeat the Commandments, the Minister saying the Prayer. And Note further, That the part of the Commandment which is inset may be omitted.

I. Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

II. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them; for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and show mercy unto thousands in them that love me and keep my commandments.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless, that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day;

Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work; thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

Minister. Grant to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶After this, the Congregation being seated, the Minister, turning to them, shall ask the Questions which follow, the Congregation reading or repeating the Answers:

Question. What does our Lord Jesus Christ teach us about these Commandments?

Answer. Our Lord Jesus Christ teaches us that they are summed up in two Commandments:—Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy mind, with all thy soul, and with all thy strength; this is the first and great Commandment. And the second is:—Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

Question. What then, do you chiefly learn from these Commandments?

Answer. I learn two things from these Commandments: my duty towards God, and my duty towards my neighbour.
Question. What is your duty towards God?
Answer. My duty towards God is to believe in him, to fear him, And to love him with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soul, and with all my strength;

I. and II. To worship him, to give him thanks, To put my whole trust in him, to call upon him;

III. To honour his holy Name and his Word;

IV. And to serve him truly all the days of my life.
Question. What is your duty towards your neighbour?
Answer. My duty towards my neighbour is, To love him as myself, and to do to all men as I would they should do unto me:—

V. To love, honour, and help my father and mother; To honour and obey the civil authority; To submit myself to all my governors, teachers, spiritual pastors, and masters; And to order myself in that lowliness and reverence which becometh a servant of God;

VI. To hurt nobody by word or deed; To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart;

VII. To keep my body in temperance, soberness, and chastity;

VIII. To keep my hands from picking and stealing; To be true and just in all my dealings;

IX. And to keep my tongue from evil-speaking, lying, and slandering;

X. Not to covet nor desire other men's goods; But to learn and labour truly to earn mine own living, And to do my duty in that state of life unto which it shall please God to call me.

¶Then shall be sung a Hymn, after which the Minister shall say as follows:—

Question. My good Child, know this; that you are not able to do these things of yourself, nor to walk in the Commandments of God, and to serve him, without his special grace; which you must learn at all times to call for by diligent prayer. What is the prayer that our Lord taught us to pray?
Answer. The Lord's Prayer.
Minister. Let us pray.

¶Then shall be said by the Minister and Congregation together, all kneeling:—

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

OFFICES OF INSTRUCTION

II.

¶After the singing of a Hymn, there shall be said the Sentence by the Minister and Congregation together, as follows:—

Come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord. And he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths.

Minister. Show thy servants thy work;
Congregation. And their children thy glory.
Minister. Let thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us;
Congregation. As we do put our trust in thee.
Minister. Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, Congregation. But unto thy Name be the praise.
Minister. Lord, hear our prayer,
Congregation. And let our cry come unto thee.
Minister. The Lord be with you,
Congregation. And with thy spirit.
Minister. Let us pray.

O Almighty God, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the head cornerstone; Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy temple acceptable unto thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Here may be sung a Hymn, after which, the Congregation being seated, the Minister shall ask them the Questions concerning the Church which follow, the Congregation responding:—

Question. When were you made a member of the Church?
Answer. I was made a member of the Church when I was baptized.
Question. What is the Church?
Answer. The Church is the Body of which Jesus Christ is the Head, and all baptized people the members.
Question. How is the Church described in the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds?
Answer. The Church is described in the Creeds as One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic.
Question. What do you mean by these words?
Answer. We mean that the Church is One, because it is one Body under one Head;
Holy, because the Holy Spirit dwells in it, and sanctifies its members;
Catholic, because it is universal, holding earnestly the Faith for all time, in all countries, and for all people, and is sent to preach the Gospel to the whole world; and Apostolic, because it continues steadfastly in the Apostles' teaching and fellowship.
Question. What is your bounden duty as a member of the Church?
Answer. My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church; and to work and pray and give for the spread of his Kingdom.

Question. What special means does the Church provide to help you to do all these things?

Answer. The Church provides the Laying on of Hands, or Confirmation, wherein after renewing the promises and vows of my baptism, and declaring my loyalty and devotion to Christ as my Master, I receive the strengthening gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Question. After you have been confirmed what great privilege does our Lord provide for you?

Answer. Our Lord provides the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, or Holy Communion, for the continual strengthening and refreshing of my soul.

¶After another Hymn, the Minister shall proceed with the Questions on the Sacraments as follows:—

Question. How many Sacraments has Christ ordained in his Church?

Answer. Christ has ordained two Sacraments only as generally necessary to salvation; that is to say, Baptism, and the Supper of the Lord.

Question. What do you mean by this word Sacrament?

Answer. I mean by this word Sacrament an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace given unto us; ordained by Christ himself, as a means whereby we receive the same, and a pledge to assure us thereof.

Question. How many parts are there in a sacrament?

Answer. There are two parts in a sacrament: the outward and visible sign; and the inward and spiritual grace.

Question. What is the outward and visible sign or form in Baptism?

Answer. The outward and visible sign or form in Baptism is Water; wherein the person is baptized, In the Name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Question. What is the inward and spiritual grace in Baptism?

Answer. The inward and spiritual grace in Baptism is a death unto sin, and a new birth unto righteousness: whereby we are made the children of grace.

Question. What is required of persons to be baptized?

Answer. Repentance, whereby they forsake sin; and Faith, whereby they steadfastly believe the promises of God made to them in that Sacrament.

Question. Why then are infants baptized, when by reason of their tender age they cannot perform them?

Answer. Because, by the faith of their Sponsors, infants are received into Christ's Church, become the recipients of his grace, and are trained in the household of faith.

Question. Why was the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper ordained?

Answer. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was ordained for the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of the death of Christ, and of the benefits which we receive thereby.

Question. What is the outward part or sign of the Lord's Supper?

Answer. The outward part or sign of the Lord's Supper is, Bread and Wine, which the Lord hath commanded to be received.

Question. What is the inward part, or thing signified?

Answer. The inward part, or thing signified, is the Body and Blood of Christ, which are spiritually taken and received by the faithful in the Lord's Supper.

Question. What are the benefits whereof we are partakers in the Lord's Supper?

Answer. The benefits whereof we are partakers in the Lord's Supper are the strengthening and refreshing of our souls by the Body and Blood of Christ, as our bodies are strengthened and refreshed by the Bread and Wine.

Question. What is required of those who come to the Lord's Supper?

Answer. It is required of those who come to the Lord's Supper to examine themselves, whether they repent them truly of their former sins, with steadfast purpose to lead a new life; to have a lively faith in God's mercy through Christ, with a thankful remembrance of his death; and to be in charity with all men.

¶Here may be sung a Hymn, after which the Minister shall ask the Congregation the Questions concerning the Ministry which follow, the Congregation responding:—

Question. What orders of Ministers are there in the Church?

Answer. Bishops, Priests, and Deacons; which orders have been in the Church from the earliest times.

Question. What is the office of a Bishop?

Answer. The office of a Bishop is, to be a chief pastor in the Church; to confer Holy Orders; and to administer Confirmation.

Question. What is the office of a Priest?

Answer. The office of a Priest is, to preach the Word of God; to baptize; to celebrate the Holy Communion; to pronounce Absolution and Blessing in God's Name; and to minister to the people committed to his care.

Question. What is the office of a Deacon?

Answer. The office of a Deacon is, to assist the Priest in Divine Service, and in his other ministrations, under the direction of the Bishop.

Minister. The Lord be with you.

Congregation. And with thy spirit.

Minister. Let us pray.

Grant, O Lord, that they who shall renew the promises and vows of their Baptism, and be confirmed by the Bishop, may receive such a measure of thy Holy Spirit, that they may grow in grace unto their life's end; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Grant, O Father, that when we receive the blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ, coming to those holy mysteries in faith, and love, and true repentance, we may receive remission of our sins, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

¶The Minister of every Parish shall diligently, upon Sundays and Holy-days, or on some other convenient occasions, openly in the Church, instruct or examine the Youth of his Parish.

¶And all Fathers, Mothers, Guardians, and Sponsors shall bring those for whose religious nurture they are responsible to the Church at the time appointed, to receive instruction by the Minister.

¶So soon as Children are come to a competent age, and can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and are sufficiently instructed in the matter contained in these Offices, they shall be brought to the Bishop, to be confirmed by him.

X. THE ORDER OF CONFIRMATION

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Order of Confirmation, or Laying on of Hands upon those who are Baptized, and Come to Years of Discretion, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Amend Order of Confirmation by inserting the question and answer:

"Dost thou accept the Lord Jesus Christ as thy Lord and Saviour?" "I do." between the first and second question and answer.

(2) In the Order of Confirmation: After the words "I do" on page 274 of the Prayer Book add:

Then shall the Bishop say, Do ye promise to follow Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour?

And every one shall answer, I do.

XI. MATRIMONY

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Form of Solemnization of Matrimony, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Substitute for the Prayer of Blessing for the Ring, the following, viz.:

Bless this Ring, O gracious Lord, and grant that these thy servants may faithfully keep their solemn pledge, and abound evermore in love and holiness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(2) Amend the third rubric on page 279, by adding the words, "on this wise" after the word "ring" in the second line; and striking out the word And in the second line of this rubric; so that it shall read,

Then shall they again loose their hands; and the Man shall give unto the Woman a Ring on this wise: the Minister taking, etc.

XII. VISITATION OF THE SICK

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Order for the Visitation of the Sick, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) In the Absolution on the last page of the Office, delete the words, "through Jesus Christ our Lord."

(2) Insert after A Commendatory Prayer when the Soul is Departed and before the final rubric the following:

When any sick person shall in humble faith desire the ministry of healing through anointing or laying on of hands, the Minister may use such portion of the foregoing office as he shall think fit, and the following form:

O BLESSED REDEEMER, relieve, we beseech thee, by thy indwelling power, the distress of this thy servant; release him from sin, and drive away all pain of soul and body, that being restored to soundness of health he may offer thee praise and thanksgiving; Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

I anoint thee with oil (lay my hand upon thee), in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, beseeching the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all thy pain and sickness of body being put to flight, the blessing of health may be restored to thee. Amen.

XIII. THE COMMUNION OF THE SICK

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Communion of the Sick, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) In the second sentence of the first rubric on page 292 of the Prayer Book, omit the words in parentheses, "which shall be two at the least."

(2) After the Gospel on page 293, insert the following:

¶Or the following Collect, Epistle, and Gospel may be used.

The Collect

O Lord, Holy Father, by whose loving-kindness our souls and bodies are renewed; Mercifully look upon this thy servant, that, every cause of sickness being removed, he may be restored to soundness of health; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. I. St. John v. 13

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: and if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

The Gospel. St. John vi. 47

Jesus said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. I am that bread of life. Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

(3) Amend the third rubric, page 293, so it shall read as follows:

¶When circumstances render it expedient to shorten the service, the following form shall suffice: The Confession and the Absolution; Lift up your hearts, etc., through the Sanctus; The Prayer of Consecration, ending with these words, partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood; The Prayer of Humble Access; The Communion; The Lord's Prayer; The Blessing. And Note that for the Confession and Absolution the following may be used.

The Confession

O Almighty Father, Lord of heaven and earth, we confess that we have sinned against thee in thought, word, and deed. Have mercy upon us, O God, after thy great goodness; according to the multitude of thy mercies, do away our offences and cleanse us from our sins; for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

The Absolution

The Almighty and merciful Lord, grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, time for true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and comfort of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

(4) In the fourth rubric, page 293, omit the words in the second and third lines, "or for lack of company to receive with him."

(5) Omit the fifth and sixth rubrics on page 293.

XIV. A PENITENTIAL OFFICE

Resolved: That the following change be made in A Penitential Office for Ash Wednesday, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Change the first rubric, page 48, by omitting the words "at Morning Prayer," and by changing "shall" to "may"; also by adding at the end: "or it may be used with Morning Prayer, or Evening Prayer, or as a separate Office."

(2) Omit, on page 49, the last two verses of Psalm 51.

(3) In the second prayer, page 50, omit the words "who are vile earth, and miserable sinners," and change "vileness" to "transgressions."

XV. THE ORDER FOR THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Order for the Burial of the Dead, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Remove Rubric one to end of the office, to read:

It is to be noted that this Office is appropriate to be used only for the faithful departed in Christ. Provided that in any other case the Minister may at his discretion use such part of this Office, or such devotions taken from other parts of this book as may be fitting.

XVI. CONSECRATION OF A CHURCH

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Form of Consecration of a Church or Chapel, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Insert, as the first rubric, the following:

¶The following Office may be used with the Order for the Holy Communion, or at Morning Prayer or Evening Prayer, or separately.

(2) In the first rubric, page 546 of the Prayer Book, in the fourth line, substitute for the word "Communion" the word "Holy."

(3) In the third line from the end of the Exhortation on page 547 of the Prayer Book, omit the words "the performance of."

(4) Substitute for the prayer for the Baptized at the bottom of page 547 of the Prayer Book the following, viz.:

Regard, O Lord, the supplications of thy servants, and grant that whosoever in this house shall be received by Baptism into the congregation of Christ's flock, may be sanctified by the Holy Ghost, and may continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end. Amen.

(5) Amend the prayer for the Confirmed at the bottom of page 547 of the Prayer Book, by altering the last two lines, so that it shall read, "that they may grow in grace unto their life's end. Amen."

(7) Substitute for the rubric, and Collect and Epistle, pages 548 and 549 of the Prayer Book, the following:

¶When there is a Communion, the following shall be the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel:

The Collect

O most glorious God, whom the heaven of heavens cannot contain; Graciously accept the Dedication of this place to thy service; and grant that all who shall call upon thee here may worship thee in spirit and in truth, and may in their lives show forth thy praise; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Rev. xxi. 2

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

(8) Omit the Proper Psalms and the Proper Lessons with rubric as given on page 548 of the Prayer Book, inserting them in the appropriate Tables.

XVII. INSTITUTION OF MINISTERS

Resolved: That the following change be made in the Office of Institution of Ministers, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Amend the first rubric on page 550 of the Prayer Book by striking out the word "the" before "Canon" in line 2, and the words "concerning the Election and Institution of Ministers"; and the quotation marks before "person" and after "Church" in lines 3 and 4; and by adding at the end these words, viz.:

And Note, That the following office may be used with the Order for the Holy Communion, or at Morning Prayer or Evening Prayer, or separately.

(2) Amend the first rubric on page 551 by substituting at the beginning the words "At the time" for the words "On the day," and by striking out the words "at the usual hour of Morning Prayer" and the words "the officiating Priest shall read Morning Prayer."

(3) Omit the matter contained between the first and second rubrics on page 551, printing the Proper Psalms and Lessons in the appropriate tables.

(4) In the second rubric on page 551, strike out the words, "Morning Prayer ended," and the words "standing within the rails of the Altar"; and add to the words which remain to the preceding rubric.

(5) Amend the prayer at the bottom of page 552, by substituting for the word "God" in the first line, the word "Father."

(6) Amend the prayer at bottom of page 553 by changing the order of words in line 4 from "soul, body and spirit" to "body, soul and spirit."

(7) Amend the prayer on page 554, by changing the end, so that it shall read: "through the merits of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ, the gracious Bishop and Shepherd of our souls, who liveth and reigneth, with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end."

(8) Amend the first part of the second rubric on page 554, so that it shall read as follows:

¶Then shall follow the Sermon. And after that, if there be a Communion, the Instituted Minister shall proceed to that Service, and to administer the holy Eucharist to his Congregation; etc., to the end.

XVIII. PRAYERS TO BE USED IN FAMILIES

Resolved: That the following change be made in the position and contents of the Forms of Prayer to be Used in Families, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article X of the Constitution.

(1) Place the Forms of Prayer to be used in Families before the Articles of Religion, prefixing a separate Title as follows:
FORMS OF PRAYER TO BE USED IN FAMILIES WITH ADDITIONAL PRAYERS

(2) After the Forms for Family Prayer, add the Title, Additional Prayers, and the Prayers set forth under that Title, in this Report.

(3) Amend the Forms of Prayer to be used in Families in the following particulars, viz.:

a. Amend the rubrics on pages 322 and 325 by adding at the end the words, "and repeating with him the Lord's Prayer."

b. On pages 323 and 325 of the Prayer Book, after the Lord's Prayer, in each case insert this rubric:

¶Here may follow the Collect for the day.

c. On page 323 of the Prayer Book, line 11, omit the sentence following the words "past night," and the side rubric.

c. 1. On page 324 of the Prayer Book line 3 change the word "excited" to "incited."

d. On page 324, strike out from and including the semicolon following the word "actions," line 9, to and including the word "by," line 10, and insert in lieu thereof the word "to."

e. On page 324 of the Prayer Book, lines 15 and 16, omit "our meats and drinks," substituting the words "all things."

f. On page 324, line 17, change "any" to "our" and in line 18 put a period after "affliction" and omit remainder of the section through the word "condition."

g. On page 324, lines 26 and 27, omit these lines, in brackets, together with the side rubric, placing a period after "ways" in line 25.

h. On page 324 of the Prayer Book, line 30, substitute the words "all things belonging to us" the words "and all who are dear to us."

i. On page 324 of the Prayer Book, line 33, insert the words "to be" between the words "see" and "necessary."

j. On page 327, line 24, substitute the word "coming" for the word "following."

k. On page 327, lines 24 and 25, strike out the words "Make us ever mindful of the time when we shall lie down in the dust," together with the semicolon following them, and begin the following word "and" with a capital letter.

(4) Immediately after the Family Prayer now in the Prayer Book, insert the following:

A SHORTER FORM

Morning

¶After the reading of a brief portion of Holy Scripture, let the Head of the Household, or some other member of the family, say,

Let us pray

Our Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

O Lord, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; Defend us in the same with thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings, being ordered by thy governance, may be righteous in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶Here may be added any special prayers.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all ever more. Amen.

Evening

¶After the reading of a brief portion of Holy Scripture, let the Head of the Household, or some other member of the family, say,

Let us pray,

Our Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord: and by thy great mercy defends us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶Here may be added any special prayers.

The Lord bless us and keep us. The Lord make his face to shine upon us, and be gracious unto us. The Lord lift up his countenance upon us, and give us peace, this night and evermore. Amen.

(5) After the foregoing, add the following Prayers, prefixing the title, Additional Prayers.

For the Spirit of Prayer

O Almighty God, who pourest out on all who desire it, the spirit of grace and of supplication; Deliver us when we draw nigh to thee from coldness of heart and wanderings of mind, that with steadfast thoughts and kindled affections we may worship thee in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the Morning

O God the King eternal, who dividest the day from the darkness, and turnest the shadow of death into the morning. Drive far off from us all wrong desires, incline our hearts to keep thy law, and guide our feet into the way of peace; that having done thy will with cheerfulness while it was day, we may, when the night cometh, rejoice to give thee thanks; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, who alone gavest us the breath of life, and alone canst keep alive in us the holy desires thou dost impart; We beseech thee, for thy compassion's sake, to sanctify all our thoughts and endeavours, that we may neither begin an action without a pure intention nor continue it without thy blessing. And grant that, having the eyes of the mind opened to behold things invisible and unseen, we may in heart be inspired by thy wisdom, and in work be upheld by thy strength, and in the end be accepted of thee as thy faithful servants; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

At Night

O Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.

O God, who art the life of mortal men, the light of the faithful, the strength of those who labour, and the repose of the dead; We thank thee for the timely blessings of the day, and humbly supplicate thy merciful protection all this night. Bring us, we beseech thee, in safety to the morning hours; through him who died for us and rose again, thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Sunday Morning

O God, who makest us glad with the weekly remembrance of the glorious resurrection of thy Son our Lord; Vouchsafe us this day such blessing through our worship of thee, that the days to come may be spent in thy service; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Quiet Confidence

O God of peace, who hast taught us that in returning and rest we shall be saved, in quietness and in confidence shall be our strength; By the might of thy Spirit lift us, we pray thee, to thy presence, where we may be still and know that thou art God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Guidance

O God, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly; Grant us, in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what thou wouldest have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in thy light we may see light, and in thy straight path may not stumble; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Trustfulness

O most loving Father, who willest us to give thanks for all things, to dread nothing but the loss of thee, and to cast all our cares on thee, who carest for us; Preserve us from faithless fears and worldly anxieties, and grant that no clouds of this mortal life may hide from us the light of that love which is immortal, and which thou hast manifested unto us in thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Heavenly Father, thou understandest all thy children; through thy gift of faith we bring our perplexities to the light of thy wisdom, and receive the blessed encouragement of thy sympathy, and a clearer knowledge of thy will. Amen.

For Joy in God's Creation

O Heavenly Father, who hast filled the world with beauty; Open, we beseech thee, our eyes to behold thy gracious hand in all thy works; that rejoicing in thy whole creation we may learn to serve thee with gladness; for the sake of him by whom all things were made, thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Children

Almighty God, heavenly Father, who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children; Give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

For the Absent

O God, whose fatherly care reacheth to the uttermost parts of the earth; We humbly beseech thee graciously to behold and bless those whom we love now absent from us. Defend them from all dangers of soul and body; and grant that both they and we, drawing nearer to thee, may be bound together by thy love in the communion of thy Holy Spirit and in the fellowship of thy saints; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Those We Love

Almighty God, we entrust those who are dear to us to thy never-failing care and love, for this life and the life to come; knowing that thou art doing for them better things than we can desire or pray for; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Recovery of a Sick Person

O Merciful God, giver of life and health; Bless, we pray thee, thy servant N., and those who administer to him of thy healing gifts, that he may be restored to health of body and of mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For One About to Undergo an Operation

Almighty God our heavenly Father; We beseech thee graciously to comfort thy servant in his suffering, and to bless the means made use of for his cure. Fill his heart with confidence, that though he be sometime afraid, he yet may put his trust in thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For a Birthday

Watch over thy child, O Lord, as his days increase; bless and guide him wherever he may be, keeping him unspotted from the world. Strengthen him when he stands; comfort him when discouraged or sorrowful; raise him up if he fall; and in his heart may thy peace which passeth understanding abide all the days of his life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For an Anniversary of One Departed

Almighty God, we remember this day before thee thy faithful servant, N., and we pray thee that, having opened to him the gates of larger life, thou wilt receive him more and more into thy joyful service, that he may win, with thee and thy servants everywhere, the eternal victory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Those in Mental Darkness

O Heavenly Father, we beseech thee to have mercy upon all thy children who are living in mental darkness. Restore them to strength of mind and cheerfulness of spirit, and give them health and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For a Blessing on the Families of the Land

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who settest the solitary in families; We commend to thy continual care the homes in which thy people dwell. Put far from them, we beseech thee, every root of bitterness, the desire of vain-glory and the pride of life. Fill them with faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness. Knit together in constant affection those who, in holy wedlock, have been made one flesh; turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to the fathers; and so enkindle fervent charity among us all, that we be evermore kindly affectioned with brotherly love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For all Poor, Homeless, and Neglected Folk

O God, almighty and merciful, who healest those that are broken in heart, and turnest the sadness of the sorrowful to joy; Let thy fatherly goodness be upon all that thou hast made. Remember in pity such as are this day destitute, homeless, or forgotten of their fellow men. Bless the congregation of thy poor. Uplift those who are cast down. Mightily befriend innocent sufferers, and sanctify to them the endurance of their wrongs. Cheer with hope all discouraged and unhappy people, and by thy heavenly grace preserve from falling those whose penury tempeth them to sin; though they be troubled on every side, suffer them not to be distressed; though they be perplexed, save them from despair. Grant this, O Lord, for the love of him, who for our sakes became poor, thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

For Faithfulness in the Use of this World's Goods

Almighty God, whose loving hand hath given us all that we possess; Grant us grace that we may honour thee with our substance, and remembering the account which we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of thy bounty; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A General Intercession

O God, at whose word man goeth forth to his work and to his labour until the evening; Be merciful to all whose duties are difficult or burdensome, and comfort them concerning their toil. Shield from bodily accident and harm the workmen at their work. Protect the efforts of sober and honest industry, and suffer not the hire of the labourers to be kept back by fraud. Incline the heart of employers and of those whom they employ to mutual forbearance, fairness, and good-will. Give the spirit of governance and of a sound mind to all in places of authority. Bless all those who labour in works of mercy or in schools of good learning. Care for all aged persons, and all little children, the sick and the afflicted, and those who travel by land or by sea. Remember all who by reason of weakness are overtasked, or because of poverty are forgotten. Let the sorrowful sighing of the prisoners come before thee; and according to the greatness of thy power, preserve thou those are are appointed to die. Give ear unto our prayer, O merciful and gracious Father, for the love of thy dear Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Grace Before Meat

Bless, O Father, thy gifts to our use and us to thy service; for Christ's sake. Amen.

Give us grateful hearts, our Father, for all thy mercies, and make us mindful of the needs of others; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AMENDMENTS OF THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED AT THE CONVENTION OF 1925, AND TO BE FINALLY ACTED UPON AT THE CONVENTION OF 1928

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI of the Constitution:

Amend Article I, Section 3, paragraph 2 of the Constitution by striking out the words, "shall thereupon become the Presiding Bishop of the Church until an election of Presiding Bishop be held by the General Convention," and substituting the words, "shall (unless the date of the next General Convention is within three months) immediately call a special meeting of the House of Bishops to be held within two months to elect a Bishop having jurisdiction in the United States to be the Presiding Bishop. The Bishop so elected shall serve until the next General Convention."

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted by the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI of the Constitution:

Amend Article I, Section 3, paragraph 1, of the Constitution, by striking out the words "having jurisdiction within the United States" at line 5, and by inserting in place thereof the words "of this Church."

Amend Article I, Section 3, paragraph 2, of the Constitution, by striking out the words "or if he shall resign his episcopal jurisdiction" at lines 2 and 3.

The amended sentences will then read as follows:

(1) The House of Bishops shall choose one of the Bishops of this Church to be Presiding Bishop, etc.

(2) But if the Presiding Bishop of the Church shall resign his office as such, or if by reason of infirmity he shall become disabled, or in case of his death, etc.
